NEW RELEASES AND RE-RELEASES

● Accord (F) 129019 "2 GREAT CONCERTS 1952/1965"
(compact disc)

Evidently copied from the double-album Festival 228 (see DEMS80/1-2+4 80/3-4+5 84/4-8 85/1-11). Again we have all the same mistakes in dates and personnel. 4 titles from the 1st lp are skipped (475c, 451d, 451e, 452a). The 2nd lp is fully copied. (Hoefsmit)

The way the CD sleeve is printed it gives the impression that Duke's mother called him Bill. Of course we all know better.

● Dance Band Days DBD-11 "THE INCOMPARABLE DE"

This lp was first mentioned in DEMS87/3-4 by Moulé. Since then Mr. Wallén had this lp on his inquiry list. Investigation results (DESOR numbers within parenthesis):

Berlin, Sportpalast, 4oct59

- Rockin' In Rhythm (747h)
- Such Sweet Thunder (747e)
- Newport Up not identified
- St. Louis Blues (747o) ?
- Walkin' And Singin' The Blues 747g (not in DESOR) -
- "Theme From 'Anatomy Of A Murder'
(Happy Anatomy) (747g)
- El Gato (747i) ?
- Hank Cinq (Hank Sink)(sic!) 747f (not in DESOR) ?
- Jam With Sam (747n)
- Things Ain't What They Used To Be (747k)
- MEDLEY (747q)

All, but "Newport Up", has earlier been available on the 'Swing House' label, though the 'Medley' incomplete. "Newport" and "I Let ..." (from Medley) here now issued for the first time. Well, Duke was not so "incomparable" as suggested in the album title. (Hoefsmit/Aasland)

Late arrival

● Circle (US) CLP-105 "DE&HO 1943 - 1945"

SIDE ONE 1Dec45 Ring Dem Bells -1 / Rose Room -1, -2 / Honeysuckle Rose -1 / Chopstics -1 / 2Jan45 Midriff -1

SIDE TWO Midriff -2 / I Didn't Know About You -1, -2, -3, -4 / I'm Beginning To See The Light -1, -2 / The Mood To Be Wooded -1

This is the fifth volume in the DE World Broadcasting series. The remastering by our Jack Towers is, as usual, beautifully carried out. In the enlightening liner notes, by the late Eddie Lambert, an error has sneaked in as "Ain't Misbehavin'" is mentioned in the text instead of "Honeysuckle Rose". Someone should have had those lines exchanged before the lp release.

ELLINGTONIA

● GRP 9848 (1p) "DIGITAL DUKE"
GRP 9548 (compact disc)
GRP (Eu) 9848 (compact disc)

Satin Doll / Cotton Tail / Prelude To A Kiss / Perdido / 22 Cent Stomp / Do Nothin' Till ... / In A Mellotone / Take The A Train

The CD version has 4 more tracks: Jeep's Blues / Mood Indigo / Solitude / Sophisticated Lady

This is a Mercer Ellington conducted orchestra, a few Ellingtonians included. 12 tracks with 11 familiar titles and a "fresh" one, 22 Cent Stomp. We quote from the Leonard Feather liner notes: "The title "22 Cent stomp" will evoke memories for students of Ellingtonia. Though its title was inspired by the postage stamp issued in Duke's honor on the 1986 anniversary of his birth, there was another piece recorded in 1947, called "Three Cent Stomp." This however, is nota new version updated for inflation. As Mercer explains, "It's a tune pop recorded under the title "Slamar In D Flat" on a session that was never released."

We would advise our fellow students in Ellingtonia, who have (like us) not been able to resist buying this DDD CD, to compare "22 Cent Stomp" with "Slamar In D Flat", recorded 2Dec57 and released on CBS 88653. If they (like us) can not find any relationship between the two tunes, we would suggest listening to "The E and D Blues" recorded 27Jun57 and released on Verve 4009-2. The "E And D Blues" is also called "Saturday Night At Basin Street" when broadcast from Basin Street on Saturday evening, 15Apr56.

If they wonder why "Slamar In D Flat" sounds familiar, they should take a fresh look at the documentary "On Road With DE", or listen again to the 22nd Danish Radio broadcast (DR-22B, see DEMS86/2-6) and pay special attention when the number "Rondolet" is announced.

The most devoted students of Ellingtonia would have read DEMS bulletin 85/2-6. (Moule/Hoefsmit/Aasland)

● Mercury 830,926-2 "THE ESSENTIAL KEYNOTE COLLECTION 5 - THE FABULOUS ELLINGTONIANS" (compact disc)

Same as the lp TRIP TLP-5549 ("Stewart/Taylor/Bigard/Tizol") ("The Ellingtonians") plus 6 more "fresh" alternate takes:

- 5Jun44 (Rex Stewart's Big Eight) Little Goose (2x) / I'm True With You (2x) / Zaza / Swamp Mist (2x),
- 1Aug44 (Billy Taylor's Big Eight) Passin' Me By / Carney-val In Rhythm (2x) / Sam-Pan (2x) / Night Wind (2x),
- 5Feb45 (Barney Bigard Quintet) Rose Room / Bojangles / Coquette / Borobudor,
- 7Apr46 (Juan Tizol & His Orch.) Keb-lah / The Sphinx / Zanzibar / You Can't Have Your Cake And Eat It

There might be a mistake in the matrix-numbers as mentioned in the liner notes for the two first titles: "The Little Goose" as "RX1", "I'm True ..." as "RX2". In all our discos "Little Goose" has RX2 and "I'm True" has RX1. (Hoefsmit)

A STRIKE- AND LOCK-OUT SITUATION IN SWEDEN PREVENT US TO EDIT AND PRINT THE REMAINING PAGES PLANNED FOR THIS ISSUE. Thus the contents will be included in the next issue to be off to you as soon as circumstances permit.

Unfortunately no opening has so far been reached during the conflict which begun mid January.

However, have a good time reading the five pages packed with info about new releases and rereleases - and don't forget to investigate the ELLINGTON '88 CONFERENCE pages! Take a good look, and then it must be easy to decide to participate!

Love of Duke"*
