The Sport Dial

By LEWIS DIAL

THE KEED is still King. Hall to the King! The decisive victory scored by Fidel LaBarba, the California Italian, who was once king of the Bantams, showed that Chocolate will reign a while longer. It also showed that when the crown is transferred from his slinked locks it is most likely to land on the curly-haired Fidel. In fact there are any number of sports writers who believe the laurels were earned last Friday by the tough LaBarba, and that he was taken for a ride on the New York Boxing Judges' Special.

The fight was a close one. No doubt, but not close enough to pass in a pair of titles or even one. If Chocolate were given a break by the judges, it is no more than he can expect. For the same writers who are yelling their heads off cannot easily forget the decisions of the two Bery-Chocolate fights, and the battle with Cannoni, lightweight champion of the world. Tony was the most surprised guy in the old Harlem when Joe Humphrey raised his hand and followed. "I said 'Champ the wrenish.' So sure that he had lost the fight Tony said over the mike, 'I'd do better next time,' but so far that next time has not yet arrived.

Some other decisions that are crying sportmen are not unkindly of the Larry Johnson, Maxie Rosenblum, Jack Thompson-Jimmy McLarin, and Risiko-Godfrey, which outranked the rank-and-file. The struggle in these fights was the decision made and stands, not that. Well, boys, the same goes for this last fight, too, and better as loud as you may, you gotta hold it to the Keed for showing that he can take it, as well as hand it out. The twelfth round proved that the Keed is still King. Again we say, 'Long live the King!'

There is a committee affiliated with the Amateur Athletic Union known as the Sullivan Memorial Committee. It is the duty of this committee to select a number of amateur athletes who have achieved one or more notable feats and then pick one athlete from this group to receive the award which is a medal donated by James E. Sullivan. This tribunal has narrowed the competition down to ten stars and has several outstanding performers. One name conspicuously absent is that of Eddie Tolan, world's champion 100 and 200 meter champion. Tolan had run his distance all year with an unusual amount of consistency, yet he gives way to Ralph Metcalfe, listed as American champion.

If the omission of Tolan's name is due to his treading on the stage with Bill 'Bojangles' Robinson, then Babe Didrikson's name should not be considered, nor should Helen Madison be given any mention. The BBA, is reported to have endorsed an automobile. Helen Madison is in the movies, and Bill Robinson is in the movies. Mr. Tolan. We will bet that this committee would have very little difficulty selecting a winner if they polled most of the school kids. For most of them are emanating Eddie Tolan.

The metric system of measuring track and field events lately adopted by the A. U. will cause no small concern among the clubs which stage meets annually and have such feature as a half-mile distance or 100-yard memorial. When the donors of their prizes arranged for these events, it was in most cases specified that a certain standard be the course. We wonder what will become of the Millrose 600-yard Special and the K. C. 300-yard dash which have come to be an institution, so far as these meets are concerned. Some tracks have been laid out and measures, these fields will have to be rearranged to suit the newly adopted metric system.

Kid Chocolate Retains Title In Close Bout With LaBarba

By LEROY BRANDFORD
Kid Chocolate is still the featherweight champion of the world, as far as New York state is concerned. Friday night, December 16, he successfully defended his title against Fidel LaBarba of California in a hectic 15-round bout before 14,000 fans at Madison Square Garden. The fight was a draw. Referee Will Lewis called it a draw; the judges, Sam Austin and Gus Farrell, gave the decision to the Cuban. Chocolate took 8 rounds, LaBarba 6 and one round was a draw in my opinion. The twelfth round was the best of the evening. Chocolate was in his labia, who was fighting a hooking, crowding battle, caught the Cuban on the chin with a stiff right that staggered him. LaBarba had the best of this round for two minutes but Chocolate rallied in the last round and hit the Californian with everything but the water bottle. A steady bombardment of uppercuts and left hooks was the result. At almost every round was close but the 15 proved who was the better man. Chocolate jabbed LaBarba's ears off in this round and used his right for sweeping uppercuts.

The once boxing in New York prove that it was on the level. It was so close a crowd of old did not have to be very biased to call it a draw and a little cracked work would have given LaBarba the title.
