WHAT'S GOING ON AROUND THE TOWN

The Duke And His Boys Are Toasts Of Society

Smart Aggregation At Pythian Temple Monday Night Interviewed By Courier Society Editor.

By JULIA B. JONES

Duke Ellington . . . I met him and talked to him . . . the big sepia, Jazz King. It was Christmas Day here in Pittsburgh. The sun was shining . . . so were the Duke's teeth as he smiled into my eyes under the relentless barrage of a zillion questions.

I didn't know it then . . . but I KNOW it now. He is the Jazz King of America for the second time and he is coming to Pittsburgh again . . . Monday, January 9th at Pythian Temple to be crowned! Millions of admirers the country over will thrill when they hear the new, for Duke is a favorite. No foolin'! He is the toast of the swank society folk down east . . . He is the favorite with the elite of the movie colony . . . and NOW he is planning to cross the big pond and get the French and English and German all bestirred and befluttered over his magic music.

You hear so much about the Duke . . . you know his autobiography like a ten-year-old knows the alphabet. His press notices are teeming with descriptions, such as "when the Duke bends over the piano ivories and his masters of melody begin fondling their instruments, one hears the very quintessence of physical Africa moving in sinuous and suggestive rhythms." Hot-cha! But the real Duke . . . the honest-to-goodness fellow that likes cabbage and greens and cornbread . . . loves home and mother . . . studies and plans and arranges music for his band . . . you seldom hear about. Duke is a regular guy in the truest meaning of the word.

When I ask him what was his hobby . . . can you imagine what he said? Music! He lives it, dreams it . . . it's his obsession! And although he is the toast of society . . . the swankiest of the swank . . . it does not inflate his cranium to the extent that he has forgotten his own.

We talked and talked about himself . . . about which he is quite reticent . . . and we discussed his boys . . . the band and he has the highest praise for each and every one.

Each member of the Duke Ellington aggregation is a musician first . . . just how he managed to get them all so keen, too . . . is a mystery. But they are the snappiest looking group of sheiks that ever escaped from the Sahara.

There is Harry Carney, Johnny Hodges and Barney Bigard, each a saxaphonist and clarinetist . . . sleek, note-tuting, masters of syncopation . . . and they put sex appeal into their saxaphones, believe me. Then Arty Whetsol, Charlie Williams and Fred Jenkins, trumpetists . . . Fred is the baby of the crowd . . . young and, innocent, maybe . . . Joe Nanton and Juan Tizol, trombonist. Juan is a Cuban . . . my, my . . . and did he bring his rhumba with him, Yes, he did! William Braud, bass . . . Fred Guy, banjo; Laurence Brown, trombonist and Otto Hardwick, a new addition to the saxaphone section. Sonny Greer . . . ah, the sweet singing Mister . . . rival of Morton Downey . . . plays the drums, too. But he should sing all of the time . . . so lovely, so marvelous is his voice.

And, lastly, Ivie Anderson . . . the torch singer . . . whose blue notes set your heart aflame . . . is the ace attraction of this mighty aggregation.

The Duke called them in and I met them. They like to travel and meet new faces . . . Yes, the men admit they fall in love in every town . . . musicians are like that you know. But they usually have THE GIRL tucked way back in the lower left-hand corner of their hearts who defies all competitors.

You will want to see and hear these aristocrats of jazz Monday night . . . Unfortunately I could not listen in on Christmas night when they played at the exclusive Schenley Hotel for the milk and honey elite . . . but Monday they will be down my way . . . playing and crooning for the sons of Ham and I will join the applause and praise with enthusiasm.

Be secinya!

Yuletide Dinner Party

The members of the Victory Club of Greater Pittsburgh gave their annual dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Graham, 7427 Monticello street.

The husbands were the celebrated guests of the occasion, who in return, to show their appreciation, devoured a huge four-course dinner.

The table portrayed a very picturesque scene with its soft lights from the candles throwing their rays upon the center of the table, where a pulchra bouquet of Christmas flowers and also the colorful grapefruit baskets stood.

The ladies suited the occasion by wearing dinner dresses of various shades, some choosing to wear dinner jackets and made a more striking appearance.

At the conclusion of the dinner Mr. Thomas spoke to members of the club and expressed the men's gratitude and appreciation for such a marvelous dinner, and finished by hoping many more would follow soon. After dinner the evening was spent in bridge and dancing.

Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Thomas, Mrs. Joe Hooper, guest of Miss Irene Barnes; Mr. McKinley Overton, guest of Mrs. Wideman; Miss Irene Barnes and fiance, Mr. Wm. Clark; Miss Delphia Allen and fiance, Mr. Wm. Gaston; Mr. and Mrs. Broman.

Greenlees "At Home" Is Festive Occasion

Asheville Society Turns Out To Greet Sons and Daughters of Well Known Family.

By DAVID HAWKINS

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 5—Combining a family reunion with a Xmas celebration brought together many members of the very popular Greenlee family in this city.

All related to the nationally known Gus Greenlee of Pittsburgh, Pa., they came from many and various sections of the country to participate in the most glamorous of social events of the holidays in Asheville.

Climaxing a series of dances and dinners with an evening party, the Greenlees played host to Asheville's so-called premier.

Many of the guests, themselves Xmas visitors and home-comers over the holiday season, represented many widely separated parts of the United States. College men and co-eds coming from West Virginia, Talladega and Howard, gave collegiate atmosphere to the affair. Music and refreshments were especially delightful.

The elaborate home of Gus Greenlee's sister, Mrs. Robinson, situated in the very beautiful and exclusive district, furnished setting and scene for the occasion.

Among the Greenlees gathered were the beautiful Miss Julia P. Greenlee of the Barber Seminary School; the popular and athletic Jack Greenlee, great tackle and captain of Howard's 1932 football team; Edward Greenlee of Hampton also came, as did Frank Greenlee, well-known night club operator of Pittsburgh and business aide to his brother, Gus, in that city. Frank Greenlee motored to Asheville in his luxurious Lincoln sedan, accompanied by an associate in business.

The one disappointment was the inability of Gus Greenlee to be home in Asheville, as had been rumored. All Asheville had looked forward to the coming of the very popular "Gus." His regrets were received.

Merry Twelve Club

The Merry Twelve Club celebrated its first anniversary by a party last week at the home of Mrs. Mackie Davis of Aiken avenue. The guests were beautifully attired. Cards and dancing were the diversions of the evening. The rooms were decorated in the Yuletide colors. Everyone had a good time.

KAN-D-KIDS AT CLUB TRI-A-NON

One of the most interesting affairs of the post-holiday season is the gala floor show and fun revue, which will be held at the beautiful Club Tri-A-Non, 2157 Center avenue, Friday night, January 13. The Kan-D-Kids, now famous young radio stars, will be the featured attraction in a big floor presentation. The hours will be from 9 p. m. un til ? ?

The committee includes DeRoy Thompson, Wesley Lee, J. Stevenson and George Terrel.

Jolly Ten

The Jolly Ten Club held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Pinkie Coleman of Reed street. Yearly reports were read. Election of officers for the coming year were as follows: Mrs. Esther Green, president; Mrs. Pinkie Coleman, vice-president; Mrs. Alberta Terrell, re-elected secretary; Mrs. Callie Maddix, treasurer and Mrs. Martha Lewis, chaplin. After business the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

The January meeting will be held at Mrs. Ada Gault's home.

Ideal Embroidery

The Ideal Embroidery Club will meet Friday, Jan. 6 at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. J. D. Strothers, 8121 Frankstown avenue. All members are requested to be present.

Personals

Miss E. Marie Coleman has recently returned home from Salisbury, N. C., where she has been assisting in the dramatic department during the last semester, at Livingstone College. Miss Coleman also staged and directed the historical pageant presented at their golden anniversary held in September.

Mrs. Eliza Stevens, formerly of Pittsburgh, now of Pasadena, Cal., is home for the holidays, and expects to return to California the latter part of January.

Mrs. Leon B. Wisdom and infant son, Leon, Jr., of Philadelphia, are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wisdom of 6529 Dean street, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Bullitt of 7042 Kedron street.

Mrs. Wisdom will be remembered as the former Miss Helen Bullitt.

Mrs. Stonie Matthews and Mrs. Clara Matthews were recent houseguests of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beale of Covington, Va.

The Misses Margaret and Annetta Daugherty, daughter of Mr. John Daugherty of Butler, Pa., has been the holiday guests of their aunt, Mrs. Henrietta Banks, 7050 Kedron street, Homewood.

Mrs. J. E. Starks of Columbus, O., is the lovely guest of Mrs. Lottie Coto and her mother, 1018 North avenue, Wilkinsburg.

Mrs. E. J. Bell has returned from a three months' visit to her home. She stopped in Richmond, Va., North Carolina, and many other cities on her trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson of Clarissa street announce the birth of an 8½ pound son, Tuesday, January 3. Mother and son are patients in Montefiore hospital.

Mrs. Katherine Smith, lovely wife of Dr. Jack Smith, spent the holidays visiting her husband and husband's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith of Pierce street. Mrs. Smith is an instructor in the Washington, D. C., school system.

The charming and fascinating Miss Genevieve Tibbits and her fiance, Beauford White, were the houseguests of Harry Turpin of Mount Union, Pa., over the holidays. They were accompanied by John Jeffries.

MISS HOPSON HOSTESS TO PRETTY PARTY

Thursday evening past, Miss Thelma Hopson was hostess at a beautiful party at her home on Bellefonte street. The house was decorated with Christmas decorations and the menu carried the Yuletide spirit by being blended into red and green color schemes. Cards and dancing kept the guest so busy that they were even reluctant to leave at 3 a. m. the next morning.

Those present were Misses Ruth Dean, Grace Carter, houseguest of Miss Dean of Columbus, O. and Virginia Union University; Theresa Moon, Anne Cannady, Orlean Collins, Lillian Howell, Mae Kinckle, Juanita Hopson; Messrs. Jack Cooper, Forrest Parr, Welfred Holmes, James Hopson, Ernest Johnson, Clifford Morrison, Roscoe Howard, Arthur Crockett, Everett Utterback, Charles Hasley, Lawrence Peeler, Walter Hopson, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Moron, Mr. and Mrs. John Peele, Dr. and Mrs. Julius Howell and Dr. and Mrs. Chester Harris.

CARD OF THANKS

Judson J. Thompson, head-waiter of McCreery's, and one of our most popular citizens is confined in the Municipal Hospital. The well-known "J. J." has sent us the following note which his friends will be glad to read:

"I take this means of thanking my friends for the many letters, cards, flowers and countless other favors extended during my illness. I hope the time is not far distant when I shall meet and thank each of them personally."

J. J. THOMPSON.

Y.W.C.A. To Launch Annual Membership Campaign January 19

The Young Women's Christian Association will open its city-wide drive January 19. The Center Avenue Branch, in keeping with its splendid principles of preparedness and punctiliousness, has arranged its working staff and laid plans for going triumphantly over the top with its full quota. The city-wide goal is $107,000; the Center Avenue's quota is $2,000.

Mrs. Harry W. Jones and Mrs. William C. Matthews are co-chairmen of the drive. Assisting them are Mrs. Emmett Davis and Mrs. James Woodruff. Mrs. Homer S. Brown is charge of lists; Mrs. Robert L. Vann publicity; Mrs. W. T. Poole, hospitality; Mrs. Nathaniel Dandridge, speakers, assisted by Mrs. John A. Charles. Mrs. Thomas A. Douglass is chairman of the Business Girls; Miss Madge Marooney, heads Girl Reserve Gift Day. Mrs. Samuel Parr is chairman of the committee of management and Miss Isobel Lawson is the competent executive secretary of the branch.

The opening guns will be fired at the annual membership dinner, January 12, although actual collections for the campaign will not begin until January 19. The annual dinner is the most pleasurable event of the year; the officials and members gather and eat and chat and sing and plan. The spirit of the occasion is ideal . . . sisters with hearts atune and purposes keen gathered around the festive board to work out a better program for the edification and glory of womanhood. All members are urged to attend. The dinner will be served at 6:30 . . . you will want to be prompt and unhandicapped by previous engagements which mighty hurry you through the meal. Your very presence will lend encouragement to the leaders of the campaign.

Lucy Stone Civic League To Sponsor Staging Of Breezy Comedy, "Scoops"

The populace has gone drama . . . you see the social season is over and if you are not going South, then you must get interested in one of the arts. So, it seems that many have chosen the drama and the stage. The Lucy Stone Civic League breaks the record for up-to-dateness by beginning immediately to plan for the production of the uproarious, clever three act comedy, "Scoops," featuring the same talented cast that produced the sketch some months ago.

The presentation will take place in the Parish House of the Holy Cross Church, Friday evening, January 20.

As you know, the cast is made up from the members of the popular Junior League, of which Miss Margaret Marr is president. The Senior league, however, is sponsoring the play, which will be followed by dancing. Mrs. Armathine Lattimore is the director.

In the cast are: Lillian Howell, Alice Bailey, Lucille Harris, Martha Moore, Juanita Jones, Kathryn Berry, Elizabeth Bailey, Margaret Marr, Rosetta Lee, Vivian Gould, Gladys Guster, Ruth Allen, Olive Payne. The executive staff includes Mrs. N. A. Allen, Beatrice Lee, Lucille Lloyd, Gertna McDonald, Bessie Ramsey and Helen Chew.

WASH OUT YOUR KIDNEYS SLEEP FINE
No More Getting Up Nights
So you feel achy all over, miserable and blue? Your head feels "crowded" your nerves quiver, you have pin-and-needle cramps—your appetite has gone and you feel weak as a cat. Don't fill your stomach with tonics or laxatives or rheumatism remedies. How can they help if it is your kidneys.
The job of the kidneys is to strain the uric acid and other poisons out of your blood. They purify your blood, that's it. Now you must not let these acids stay in the kidneys or they'll get back in the blood and poison your whole body. That's why your kidneys must pass 3 pints of "water" a day. Let them fall and you know it. Your appetite goes back on you, so does your pep, your sleep, and your nerves—your back hurts, your ankles and feet may swell up and you feel cranky and sick.
Now see what a wonderful change takes place after you start on Foley Pills. Kidney action increases at once. Out go those acids. Burning stops. Sleep is sounder and none of this getting-up business. You feel like "somebody."
Your druggist has Foley Pills. Sells a lot of them, because most people know how good they are. Don't cost much either—but they certainly do a grand job. If they don't your money back any time you want it. ©1933
