BIG CROWD EXPECTED AT ELLINGTON DANCE

The second appearance of Duke Ellington and his Harlem Aristocrats, colored dance band, at the Memorial Coliseum will take place Friday night.

Ellington and his band played at a concert and dance here in August before a near-capacity crowd.

Warren Miller, dance promoter, said the second appearance of Ellington will probably draw an even greater patronage.

The band will entertain with a concert followed by the dance. Ivie Anderson, colored blues singer, will again appear with the band here.
