Mrs. Abbott Apparently Forgets Slap

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Just before Christmas, the Century Bridge Club composed of members of Chicago's most exclusive social set, met at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Abbott and in an exchange of comment between Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. W. J. Verby, Mrs. Abbott was slapped in the face by Mrs. Edwin Verby, Church daughter of Mrs. Abbott.

At the last meeting of the club, held at the home of Mrs. Dolly Jennings, 4677 Champlain avenue, both Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Church were present, and although they did not rush to kiss each other, they were cordial, apologetic and played cards together, signifying that a truce had been called.

TALK O' TOWN

Crisp, Breezy Comment On This and That and Those in Smoke Town

'MOOD INDIGO'... Did you hear and see the "carryin'" on Monday? No... it wasn't Christmas or New Year's... the DUKE, HIS SELF, was in town.

The Duke was gowned... truly, populace... the feminine wore silk, satin, velvet... long and clinging, to forms SO good and NO: so good... by clinging just the same.

BISHOP'S BEAUTY SHOP 410 Third Ave.—AT 4148 I wish to share my 15 years of practical experience with some woman or girl who is interested in the White Trade only... to do colored work except pressing. There is no secret in pressing hair for a parcel. The LeFAYE Hair OIL is our specialty and their is no equal because it is the original method of waving. The leading young hair dressers in Pittsburgh were taught this method by Lewis, Lillie Bell, Willie, Alice, etc. If you are taught in Bishop's Beauty Shop you are qualified to work in ANY shop.
