Harlem Boy Scouts Hold Splendid Rally

Dr. Valentine Thomas, Prominent Chiropodist, Retires After 35 Years Practice; To Move To Georgia

Dr. Valentine Thomas, who is well known in business and professional circles, announces that he has retired after thirty-five years practice of chiropody in New York. He will leave shortly for his home in Georgia where he will live on his farm with his sister. He was a pioneer among members of the race in entering the field of Chiropody which has since become one of the recognized professions.

Dr. Thomas began the study of chiropody in Savannah, Ga., under Dr. Lem Davis, a white man. From there he went to Jacksonville, Fla., and began his practice in the St. James Hotel, after being granted a license. After several months' practice in Jacksonville he came to New York in 1895, and took the Pedic examination for the State of New York. He was successful and was granted a license.

In 1898 he opened an office at 587 Sixth avenue, where he has carried on his practice ever since. Dr. Thomas during his long practice in New York has built up a large clientele, and established a reputation for efficiency and reliability. He is regarded as one of the most prominent practitioners in the field of chiropody. He is the founder of the New York County Pedic Society which is made up of the leading Podiatrists of the race practising in New York.

He was one of the first trustees of the First Institute of Podiatry when it was established. He is a life member of the New York Pedic Society, and the New York State Pedic Society, which exempts him from all dues. He has written from all dues. He has written several articles on Practical Podiatry which have received many fine comments from prominent members of the profession.

Since being in New York Dr. Thomas has been associated with every movement making for the civic, moral and political betterment of the race. He has given much of his time to civic work in the community.

He was one of the first members of the United Colored Democracy, and is one of the most prominent members of that organization. Dr. Thomas is also a life member of the National Negro Business League, founded by the late Booker T. Washington. He was among the first to take out a life membership in this organization. He was also for sometime vice-president of the New York branch of the National Negro Business League. He is also a member of the Y. M. C. A.; the Association of Trade and Commerce; St. Philip's Guild, and the Holy Name Society of the St. Francis Church.

Dr. Thomas has had an interesting and varied career. He was born in Stellarsville, Ga.; the son of Julia and Dennis Thomas. He attended the public schools of Stellarsville, later going to Augusta, where he attended night shcool for several years. He later went to Chicago where he continued his education in Jones Institute from which he graduated. He then read a law at the Hyde Magistrate Court under Judge Corrigan. During the World's Fair he was a messenger and sold the world's fair pocket guide. He also sold the life of James G. Blaine.

Dr. Thomas has one sister, Jane Thomas Smith, who resides in Augusta and with whom he will live on their farm in Stellarsville, Ga. He plans to leave New York for the South the latter part of the month.

Nannie H. Burroughs Addresses Graduates At Lincoln Hospital

Miss Nannie H. Burroughs, president of the National Training School for Women at Washington, D. C., delivered the address to the graduating class of the Lincoln School for Nurses, before a large crowd in the auditorium of the Lincoln Hospital, Thursday evening, May 12. Miss Burroughs told the nurses that they were entering upon a life of unselfish service and lauded the achievements of the Negro nurses of the past.

The commencement program also included the following: Invocation, the Rev. Dr. William Pierson, Merrill; the Nurses' Hymn, (words by Mrs. Adah B. Thoms) the graduating class; selection by the Glee Club; awarding of scholarship medal to Miss Adelaide Catherine Gilliard of Washington, D. C., by Dr. Eugene Bernstein; presentation of diplomas, Mrs. Armitage Whitman, president Board of Managers; class song, (words by Adelaide Gilliard and Eugena Smith, with Cicely Jones, accompanist); benediction, the Rev. Harold S. Rambo.

The Glee Club is under the direction of Miss Minnie Brown, with Loretta Anthony as accompanist.

Among others seated on the rostrum were: Dr. J. G. William Greeff, Commissioner of Hospitals of New York City, who presided; Dr. Rudolph Rapp, superintendent Dr. Harry T. Burleigh, whose arrangement of Spirituals was used by the Glee Club, and Fred R. Moore, editor of The New York Age.

Twenty-nine young women were awarded diplomas. They are: Mary Agnes Brogden, Baltimore, Md.; Veronica Marie Chase, White Plains, Md.; Helen Muriel Brown, Brooklyn; Marjorie Louise Brown, Stamford, Conn.; Marietta Evelyn Christopher, Antigua, B. W. I.; Dorothy Elizabeth Cisco, Englewood, N. J.; Florence Evelyn Cooper, Philadelphia; Dorothy Douglass, Cambridge, Mass.; Adelaide Catherine Gilliard, Washington, D. C.; Marjorie Geraldine Gunning, Hartford, Conn.; Dorothy Goldstein Hopson, Englewood, N. J.; Ethel Bernice Jenkins, Washington, D. C.; Emily Lillian Johnson, Providence, R. I.; Louise Johnson, Baltimore, Md.; Cicely Gunner Jones, Hillburn, N. Y.; Evelyn Thelma Kea, Philadelphia; Ethel Mae Mitchell, Philadelphia; Orange Beatrice Moore, Middletown, O.; Mildred Josephine Petway, Vineland, N. J.; Charlotte Dell Phillips, Cleveland, O.; Ruth Hazel Pigott, Brooklyn; Maude Beatrice Quander, Brentwood, Md.; Myrtle Thelma Robinson, Cleveland, O.; Eugena Smith, St. Louis, Mo.; Alda Vandrine Wharton, Englewood, N. J.; Anna Cecelia Williams, Lexington, Ky.; Octavia Tyree Williams, Washington, D. C.; Margaret Loraine Wilson, Chambersburg, Pa., and Elizabeth Josephine Worthen, Cleveland.

CRAWFORD MASS MEETING

A revelation of the inside story of the George Crawford extradition case now being fought in Boston, Mass., is promised at a mass meeting to be held next Thursday, May 25, at 8 p. m., at Salem M. E. Church, 129th street and Seventh avenue by the N. A. A. C. P.

Frank Crosswaith To Address The Pullman Porters' Brotherhood

Anoher mass meeting is being held by the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, at the St. Philip's Parish House, 211 West 133rd street, this Thursday evening, May 25. Among the speakears are: Attorney William T. Andrews; Frank Crosswaith, former candidate for Congress and well-known Socialist leader, the Rev. William Lloyd Imes, pastor of St. James Presbyterian Church, and A. Phillip Randolph, founder and head of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.

Mrs. Lelia D. Wiley Hostess To The Dames Club Of N. J.

EAST ORANGE, N. J.—The Dames, a club of New Jersey matrons—Mesdames Walter Darden and Maria Kellar of Newark; Julia Ballou and Frank Thompson of Montclair; Artie Johnson of Orange; Andrew Maxwell of Paterson; Gladys Fox of Elizabeth; Leonard Savoy of Irvington and Leila Dabney Wiley of East Orange—were elaborately entertained by Mrs. Wiley at her palatial home, 378 Central avenue, last week. Bridge was the feature of the afternoon.

The prizes, which consisted of imported Italian, Mexican and Chinese pottery and jewelry, were won by the following guests: Mesdames Harry Mickey of Maplewood; Robt. Thompson of Westfield; Charlotte Kyle and Miss Mildred Morris of Newark; Jessie Fauset Harris and Sari Price Patton of New York City. Club prizes were won by Mesdames Julia Ballou and Walter Darden.

Others present were Mesdames Eugene Kinckle Jones and F. West Hayes of Flushing, L. I.; Helen Thornhill and Alice Bell of Montclair; Walter G. Alexander of Orange; Maurice Curtis of Paterson; Charles Harris, Jone E. White and Anna Randolph of Jersey City; Gertrude Morris of Passaic; Joseph Hill and Miss Mae Winner of Newark; Bertha Randolph of East Orange; Norman Cotton and Jennie Johnson of New York City; Bernice Harris Sterling of Birmingham, Ala., and Dr. Isabelle Granger of Brooklyn.

Harlem Business Men's Club Holds Services At Rendall Memorial Church

In harmony with its program of community betterment, the Harlem Business Men's Club and the Harlem Housewives' League, were invited to take charge of the evening services at the Randall Memorial Church, 137th street and Lenox avenue, last Sunday night.

Robert W. Justice of the N. Y. Academy of Business, president of the club, commended the attitude of the church in permitting an entire Sunday evening service to be devoted to business. Rev. Thomas J. B. Harris, pastor, responded saying, that he thought the church's attitude was misunderstood on the subject and that generally the Negro business men of the community would receive full support of their program from Harlem pulpits.

Ralph O. Gothard, executive secretary, explained the club's program as contained in its One Year Extension Plan and announced the next Negro Trade Week June 5 to 10, inclusive. Mr. Blackburn of Super Laundry also addressed the meeting. T. A. Hebbons, head of Hebbons' Printing Service, sang a baritone solo, "Judge Me, O. God," by Dudley Buck.

Harlem Boy Scouts In Rally And Court Of Honor; Thousands Hear Dr. James E. West Address Group

The Rally and Court of Honor of the Harlem Boy Scouts, A. G. Fallings, field executive, was held Friday evening, May 18, at Public School 136, 135th street and St. Nicholas avenue. Prior to the rally, the scouts, preceded by their band of 30 pieces directed by Lieutenant J. W. Porter, paraded through the streets of Harlem. About 800 boys were in the line of march. The parade started at 7 p. m., from 135th street and Seventh avenue to 145th street; to Lenox avenue, to 127th street; to 7th avenue, to 135th street and thence to the school.

At the school, more than a thousand persons were gathered to witness the various events. Attorney William H. Austin, chairman of the Court of Honor, presided. Dr. Ernest R. Alexander introduced Percy Jackson, president of the Manhattan Council, who in turn introduced Dr. James E. West, chief scout executive of the United States, who was the principal speaker. Dr. West delivered a fine address on the all-inclusiveness of scouting.

Lemuel L. Foster, district marshall, presided over the rally and led the boys in scout songs and the band rendered several selections. An Indian dance, knot-tieing, first aid, shirt-tearing, signalling and a pageant showng all stages of scouting were the features. Three Eagle Scout awards, and a number of Life and merit badge awards were made.

Among the prominent guests present were Captain Daniel Beard, Stanley Harris of the Interracial Commission; John Degener, treasurer, and Col. John Stillwell, commissioner of the Manhattan Council; Dr. Albert S. Reed, Eugene Kinckle Jones, Benjamin H. Locke, Editor Fred R. Moore and Gerald H. Norman.

FOLLOW SAM

"Sam", the principal character in the exclusive comic strip appearing in THE NEW YORK AGE, is doing big things. Follow his activities every week on Page 5.

Manhattan and Bronx Personal Notes

Charles O'Jon To Give Organ Recital at Church

Charles O'Jon, well known church organist, will give a musicale on Sunday afternoon, May 28, at 4 p. m., at St. Luke's Chapel, 28 Edgecombe avenue. The program sponsored by the Organ Committee is for the benefit of the Organ Fund. The admission price will be 50 cents.

The formal opening of the Girls' Work Department of St. Philip's Parish House on Thursday, May 18, proved a great success. The speakers were Mrs. M. B. Jenkins and Misses Rosalie Carter and Doris Selbour. The Swastika Girls were hostesses and served tea and cookies.

Rev. J. H. McMullen of Akron, Ohio, former pastor in New York City, was a visitor at The New York Age office on Friday, May 19. While in the city, Rev. McMullen was guest of Rev. J. W. Brown of Mother A. M. E. Zion Church.

Miss Auralia Lee Fentress, dramatic reader of 119 West 122nd St., was the luncheon guest of Rev. and Mrs. Grant G. Coles, 259 West 114th street, last week.

Hilton A. Phillips, recently a candidate for the Los Angeles City Board of Education and columnist for the Los Angeles New Age Dispatch, is spending the summer in the East. He was the weekend guest of a relative, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Greenidge, 503 West 169th street, but is spending most of his time in Old Bridge, N. J.

Les Seize Club is giving a Scottsboro Defense Benefit Musical Sunday afternoon, May 28, at Town Hall, 113 West 43rd street. Hall Johnson and members of his choir, Wen Talbert's orchestra, Ethel Waters and many other artists have promised to appear on the program.

A mass meeting to protest the raise in price of milk will be held Monday evening, May 29, at the Public Library, 103 West 135th street, under auspices of the North Harlem Community Council, James Middleton, chairman. The speakers will be Emil Greenberg and Edward T. Russell.

The Energetic Social Club entertained their many friends with a tea at the residence of Mrs. Verona Bradford, vice president, of 474 West 150th street, on Sunday afternoon, May 7. Addresses were made by T. Clyde Lindo and A. Garrison. Prominent among the guests were: Misses R. Giles, and R. Johnson; Mesdames B. Lindo, H. Stewart and G. Agard; also Messrs. G. Bradshaw, H. Bradford, G. Agard and A. Garrison.

The Ivy Social Club was delightfully entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd, 123 West 116th street, last Tuesday evening. Late supper and dancing were the main features. Mr. Shepherd and Mrs. Gordon were jointly responsible for the success of the affair. Among those present were: Miss Carrie Howard, vice-president; Mesdames Hattie Bowe, Alise Shields, Docia Askew and Della Deas, also J. Berry Evans, president, Arthur Shields, Alfred Osbourne and James A .Thomas.

Miss Lillian Watson was hostess to the Flower Club of Lilly of the Valley H. H. of Ruth, 2010, Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Showers, 172 West 136th street. A delicious repast was served by the hostess after which all participated in dancing and games. Those present were Mesdames Ruth Moore, Nancy C. Greene, Ruth Hazel, Millie Hazel, Hattie B. Graham, Beatrice Washington, Mattie L. Bostic, Hattie Wellons, Lonnie Stephens; Messrs. M. Graham, T. H. Washington, J. Stephens, J. Niles, V. Moore and R. T. Bostic.

Mrs. Theresa Rose, widow of the late J. W. Rose, former Harlem business man, has returned to New York City after residing several years in Monrovia, California. She will remain in the city indefinitely, and may be reached at her former New York City address, 424 Lenox avenue.

Cleveland G. Allen, who was formerly a member of the editorial staff of the Home News, and now a reporter for the Chicago Defender, visited that newspaper last Saturday, and received a warm welcome from the members of the staff. Mr. Allen was personally greeted by the city editor J. R. Parsons under whom Mr. Allen served when a reporter on the Home News.

ARTHUR A. MADISON
LAWYER
200 West 135th Street, Suite 117
Telephone Bradhurst 2-0001
Res. Phone Tillinghast 5-0566

Make More Jobs in Harlem
Use Your Own Community Laundry
WE USE
Doles Tested Method
Makes Clothes Last Longer
Call BRadhurst 2-4282
BELSTRAT LAUNDRY CO.
(Incorporated)
51 West 140th Street
Member Harlem Business Men's Club, Inc.

YEAH MAN?
Italian—American
RESTAURANT
2350 Seventh Avenue
Bet. 137 and 138th Streets
New York City
Open all Night - First Class Service
TONEY, Manager

—TRY THE—
THERESA TEA ROOM
For Home Cooked
TASTY MEALS
Delicious Home-made PIES, CAKES and SOUTHERN WAFFLES
271 WEST 138th STREET

The Harlem Business Guide OF Negro-Owned and Operated ... Business Enterprises ...

YOUR Name should be in this Directory!
Phone NOW for Information on Lowest Rates!!
The New York Age, Bradhurst 2-0864 - 0865!!!

The list below is comprised of progressive Negro-owned and operated enterprises of Harlem. THE NEW YORK AGE feels that the public will appreciate and patronize these leading business men and women because they give both JOBS and merchandise; honest, courteous, and dependable service. We are publishing each week an alphabetical list of both business and professional Negro men and women, as from an ordinary advertisement it is impossible to tell whether it is a Negro concern or not.

Those listed here are mutually interested in creating better, and more, executive and employment opportunities for Negroes, especially for your sons and daughters coming out of the schools and colleges!

Observe FIRST WEEK IN EVERY MONTH AS THE NEGRO TRADE WEEKS!

Support THE ONE YEAR EXTENSION PLAN TO INCREASE NEGRO BUSINESS!

"THE NEW DEAL FOR NEGROES"

THE TIMES COMMAND UNITED ACTION!!!

NEGRO MINISTERS OF HARLEM: Give one Sermon a Month on "Negro Business" on the Sunday preceding the monthly Negro Trade Week; it will enrich your congregation!

NEGRO EMPLOYEES OF HARLEM: Spend only where members of your race are employed; this will create more jobs for YOU!

NEGRO ORGANIZATIONS OF HARLEM: Pledge your members to support Negro business men in their efforts to create more and better jobs for our group, and to support the Trade Weeks; it will put more money in your treasuries!

NEGRO BUSINESS OF HARLEM: Give better service! Everyone join the monthly Business Booster Parades on the day ushering in Negro Trade Week; it will put more dollars in your cash register!

THE TIMES DEMAND UNITED ACTION!!!

Business Schools
NEW YORK ACADEMY OF BUSINESS
R. W. Justice, Director
447 Lenox Avenue Tel. Tillinghast 5-2287

Employment Agencies
LARKS EMPLOYMENT AGENCY
Elsie Eliza Dorsey, Prop.
Select, Competent Help
2297 Seventh Ave. - Tel. Tillinghast 5-4330

Funeral Directors
EDWARD M. FENTRESS
2244 Seventh Avenue
Notary Public
Tel. EDgecombe 4-9049—Res. Tel UNiv. 4-1992

Grocers—Wholesale
NATIONAL C. M. A. STORES, Inc.
Albon L. Holsey, Pres.
252 West 138th Street Tel. EDgecombe 4-1670

Jewelers
P. L. HUFFSTEAD, Watchmaker
— Fine Repairing —
2456 Seventh Avenue Tel. BRadhurst 2-7868

Laundries
BELSTRAT LAUNDRY CO., Inc.
The Race's Largest
51 West 140th Street Tel. BRadhurst 2-4282

Linen Supplies
JOHN T. HAILSTALK
Coats, Aprons, Hoovers
232 West 135th Street Tel. EDgecombe 4-5916

Paper Supplies
HART'S PAPER SUPPLY CO., Inc.
Paper & Paper Products, Wholesale & Retail
Special Service To Clubs and Organizations
73 West 141st Street Tel EDgecombe 4-1460

Printers
HEBBONS PRINTING SERVICE
Quality — Punctuality
T. A. Hebbons
222 West 135th Street Tel. BRadhurst 2-9519

NEW YORK AGE PRESS
230 West 135th Street Tel. BRadhurst 2-0864

Restaurants
LITTLE GRAY SHOPS
Allie Jones, Prop.
No. 1—2351 Seventh Ave. Tillinghast 5-9258
No. 2—2465 Seventh Avenue AUdubon 3-8653
No. 3—366 W. 145th Street AUdubon 3-8763

O. K. LUNCH
B. J. Mims, Mgr. — Thomas Minter, Chef
251 West 135th Street
Meals 15c — 25c

Real Estate
WALTER P. D'ABNEY
Realtor
30 McCombs Place Tel. BRadhurst 2-6395

Taxicabs
GOLD STAR SERVICE
The Emblem of P. H. Taxi Corporation,
Owned and Operated by Peters and Hamilton
21 West 141st Street, Tel AUdubon 3-9293

Around the Courts

LOVE IS LIKE THAT!!—

Dorothy Wiggins, 287 Edgecomb avenue, received a suspended sentence from Magistrate Ford in Washington Heights Court when she was arraigned on a charge of stabbing Donald Adams, 742 St. Nicholas avenue, with an icepick.

From the evidence it would appear that the couple were former sweethearts. On Thursday while Adams was at the home of Miss Wiggins a quarrel ensued over the return of letters to the young man. An altercation followed and Miss Wiggins is alleged to have stabbed her sweetheart with an icepick.

Adams is a postal employee and Miss Wiggins is a sister of Jumping Joe Wiggins, third baseman of the Bacharach Giants.

GETTING EVEN WITH TAXI DRIVERS—

On Thursday Magistrate Ford in Heights Court held William Heath, 28 West 131st street; Eugene Little, 22 West 134th street, and Howard Rasmus, 418 St. Nicholas avenue, in $1000 bail each for a further hearing on charges of robbery.

Albert Signoretti, white, taxidriver, charged that the men summoned his cab and were drived to 10 St. Nicholas terrace where they alighted.

One of the men threatened him with a knife while the other two searched his pockets and took $2 from him, the taxidriver further alleges. He followed them until he saw Officer Regan of the 123rd street precinct who arrested them.

HOMELESS YOUTH IN JAIL—

Magistrate Ford in Washington Heights Court held James Hawkins, who said he had no home, without bail for the Grand Jury on a charge of attempting to rob Grady Goldin, 117 West 144th street, and in $1,000 bail for a hearing in Special Sessions on a charge of violating the Sullivan Law.

Goldin charged that Hawkins and two other men forced their way into his home and attempted to rob him at the point of a gun. He shouted for help and he further alleges that Hawkins struck him with the butt of the gun. They then ran down the stairs, followed by a tenant. Hawkins tripped and fell on the stairway and was caught by his pursuer and handed over to Officer Kathkorn of the 135th street police station.

5 TO 10 YEARS FOR KILLING

Because he used indecent language in the presence of Willie Neal's three small children Carvie Gates is dead, and Neal who resented the offense will spend the next five years in State Prison.

On Thursday last Judge Freschi in Part V of General Sessions sentenced Willie Neil, who lived with his mother-in-law and his three children at 1824 Madison avenue, to serve from five to ten years in State Prison after the lad had pleaded guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, arising out of the slaying of Carvie Gates in Neal's home of March 2 last. Asst. District Attorney John F. Joyce requested that the court accept the plea.

According to Mary Johnson, who had recently come from the South to take care of Neal's children whose mother is dead, it would appear that Gates who lived at 69 East 98th street, was a frequent visitor in the home of Neil. On the afternoon of March 2 when Neil arrived home she told him that an investigator from the Relief Bureau had been there with a food ticket which he was to sign. Neil's reply was that he had been out looking for something to do as a means of supporting his children and getting his car out of storage.

Gates is then said to have upbraided Neil, in rather uncomplimentary remarks, for wanting to operate a car while in receipt of charity. Neil resented these remarks being used before his children. An argument then ensued and Gates is said to have held Neil by his shirt. Neil then pulled a spring-blade knife from his pocket and stabbed his aggressor several times about his body. He was removed to the Hospital for Joint Diseases where died the following day.

Philip A. Payton Company Moves To 135th Street

The Philip A. Payton, Jr., Co., Harlem's oldest real estate company, has moved its office from 128 Lenox avenue to 11½ West 135th street. This company was founded by the late Philip A. Payton, jr., in 1901 and for a long time had an office in the neighborhood to which it has returned. William H. Wortham is the present head of the company.

ZORA DONOHOO'S
Beauty Shop and School
Complete Beauty Service, specialising in Scalp and Skin Treatments Shampoo, Press, Wave, $1.25 up. Manicuring 35 cents; Hair Dyeing $3. Complete Beauty Course Taught $35; $5 down, $2 weekly.
268 WEST 134th STREET
Phone BRad. 2-9327. .. .. 4|22|3m

"Get A Passport To Charm"
Mme. Maude Shepherd
BEAUTY CULTURIST
PORO SYSTEM
Hair Dressing, Manicuring, Facial Massage
Marcelling A Specialty
21 West 127th St. New York City
Phone HArlem 7-6472

Seriousness and Laughter

By Little Boy Blue

Hello, everybody, here's something I trust you will help make a success—the gigantic midnight show at the Lafayette Theatre on Sunday night, May 28-29, under auspices of the Boys Advisory Committee of the Harlem Children's Center, 30 West 134th street. The proceeds of this show and other contributions will be used for the upkeep of that beautiful playground and dormitory, and also to send several hundred poor boys to summer camps. Geo. Gregory jr., is director and is being assisted in promoting the show by Messrs. Reynolds and Thomas and Ptl. Allen J. Benton, and Miss Saunders.

• • •

Hey folks, the World's Fair opens officially in Chicago on May 27. I know a number of strange people who should be on exhibition there. They would make a fortune. These people include: Those dizzy janes who use mechanicals and chemicals to change the color of their skin and hair.

Those sissy looking gigolos who parade the Avenue with their hair straightened and wearing stockings on their domes.

Those freakish looking queens and half-wit men we see promenading in pajamas.

Those masculine gals who try, and in some instances succeed in betraying the morals of decent women. But a dame who accepts the attentions of such a woman isn't so hot anyway.

And when the world's fair goes to some other land, I trust that all these freaks will be on the ship which I hope hits an iceberg and sinks.

• • •

Sam Alleyne says that no matter how high a man gets in the world, his wife usually calls him down.

• • •

Teddy Hart says that history teaches us that King Solomon had a thousand wives, and if that is true he must have been a man of few words. (How many do you want, Teddy, old kid?)

• • •

I know a daffy, hen-pecked husband who got tired of his wife and tried to trade her in for a new one at the Women's Exchange. This same boob sent for a veterinary surgeon when his wife was kicked by a mule—he thought the mule had hurt its foot.

• • •

The Wandering Boys Club recently came home and served themselves with a fatted calf, names Booster, but I doubt that they will retain the animal as it is the property of somebody else. In other words, at a recent meeting of the cop's club it was voted to change the name of the club from Wandering Boys to Boosters Club, pending an investigation. But this investigation disclosed that there was another Boosters Club. Now we are nameless until the next meeting.

• • •

Miss Violet Sapero of the Quality Beauty Salon says that she knows several gals who used to wear out their slippers whipping their children. Now they wear out their shoes on the dance hall floor, trying to beat these same children (now grown up) doing the shim sham shimmie and the lindy hop.

• • •

Now that you are free again, Mrs. Byrd V. Harris, you have got to have somebody to do your loving and utter sweet sentiments to you. Have you made a selection yet? If not, why not?

• • •

C. W. Stephens, publisher of Club Life, at 200 West 127th street, informs me that he is sweet on a certain beauty culturist, and that she brings him down. He failed to tell me who she was. Furthermore, he should have some ads from the beauty parlor queens in his tabloid. Maybe he is flattering me and that's not easy, not even for Stephens.

• • •

I heard that Al Smith, the genial proprietor of the Checker Club, has an irresistable little dame to entertain the mob at his new joint in Saratoga this fall when the racing season starts. Well, I'll be there, Al.

• • •

I wonder if Miss Alice Hayes, Miss Ina Lawson and Miss Billie Carroll are going to take their summer baths in the Lido Pool, 160 W. 146th street. I hope so. I'd love to see them in bathing suits.

Miss Anna E. Lawson Again On Pension Board

By a unanimous vote, Miss Anna E. Lawson, principal of Public school 119, 133rd street, was reelected as teacher member of the Board of Retirement to serve for a three-year term, last week.

IT'S A DUTY TO BE CHARMING

Almanello Beauty Institute, Inc.
School of Beauty Culture
ALMA GRANT, Founder
2157 Seventh Avenue
Phone UNI. 4-8110
Marcel Waving A Specialty

WANTED
Ambitious Girls to Enroll At Our School
$150 Course now $50
No down payments, installments $2 per week.
This unique plan enables you to earn while learning.
Day and Evening Classes
ALL BRANCHES TAUGHT
SEND IN APPLICATION BLANK BELOW
You get $5 reduction with this coupon
Name ....
Street No. ....
City ....