

SOCIAL REVUE

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Insel who have been making their home in Corsicana the past eight months or more, left Saturday morning for Bay City.

Randolph Mitchell spent the week and in Ennis with his friend, Teddie Norman.

Mrs. Truly Etheredge, her daughter, June; Miss Rose Sizemore and Miss Lena Rose Harvin were Hillsboro visitors Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Scroggins, Mrs. D. L. Harrison and Misses Bettie Harrison and Josephine Watt motored to Dallas Saturday to hear Duke Ellington and his orchestra at the Majestic.

Mrs. Beaton Miller, who has been the guest of her sister-in-law, Miss Ursula Miller, the past week or ten days, left Sunday morning for her home in Oklahoma City. She also visited a sister-in-law in Fairfield, Mrs. Jim Payne, and family, and Wortham friends, accompanied by Miss Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Weakley, who returned to their home in Dallas after the cotton season in Corpus Christi last week, spent Sunday in the home of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Trim Houston. They came down for their young son, Tim, who has been the guest of his grandparents the past week.

Misses Suzanne Hardy and Evelyn Spikes were in Dallas Saturday to hear Duke Ellington and his world-famous band, who is appearing in person at the Majestic.

Miss Nina Walker, accompanied by Frank Walker, Jack Redden and George Leonard motored to