

kers
tere
ome

DUKE ELLINGTON PACKS HOUSE AT PARAMOUNT, NAT

Tempting rhythms and fast, hot music feature Duke Ellington's Harlem Aristocrats, now playing four shows a day at the Paramount theater.

The world-famous New York orchestra packed the theater for performances yesterday, and at The Nat Monday night a capacity crowd danced to the music of the band that formerly presided at Harlem's famous Cotton Club.

Fifteen players each an expert on some band instrument, make up the orchestra. Particularly talented are some of the brass section soloists. And of course Duke, at the piano, is a show in himself.

A number of entertainers, including Iyle Anderson, Earl Tucker and Ford, Marshall and Jones, appear in added attractions with the stage show. Many of Ellington's ultra-smart compositions are in the presentation.

In connection with the stage attraction is "The Worst Woman in Paris" with Adolphe Menjou and Beulah Rime.

TEVACCU... AM

the
her"
direct
owns.
flat-
you?
sills,
each
has rand
at B
hens,
Ben
and pat-
town
anta

th he th
fo
ad
ra
No
th
DU
J
the will
De
ng
the
&
Def
of t
the can
P
ult
For