Mr. Hill is a real friend of labor. His grandfater organized one of the first sidewalk unions in America. This brother, H. N. Hill, is an active member of the B. O. T. But he does not depend on relatives for his record as his decision in which he dissented from the majority of the commission in the famous 'dugman's case' has been quoted in labor papers all over the country.

Mr. J. H. Tabet is by the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Dignita, Tulsa, Oklahoma. Her condition is very high and at St. Matthews Church, Tulsa, was beautifully decorated with palms and plant flowers for the bereaved members. The pastor preached a great sermon at 11 a. m. on the subject, 'The Resurrection of the Dead.'
