Capitol to Show 'Convention City'

'Convention City,' with an all-star cast which includes Joan Blondell, Adolphe Menjou, Dick Powell, Guy Kibbee, Frank McHugh, Patricia Ellis and Ruth Donnelly, opens tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre. The story by Peter Milne is a hilarious take-off on the tired business man who presumably goes to a convention for business reasons and then spends his time acting as a playboy.

Designs Own Costumes

W. C. Fields designed his own wardrobe for 'The Old-Fashioned Way.' He plays the part of a leader of a theatrical troupe in the gay nineties.

DeMille Adopts Peacocks

Two peacocks out of a half dozen purchased for scenes in 'Cleopatra,' were adopted by Director Cecil B. De Mille and placed on his Paradise Ranch.

Miss Semon Head of Bill At Paramount

With a background of three generations in the theatre, Primrose Semon, New York's dynamic red-head, is the master of ceremonies on the stage of the Paramount theatre this week. She is also a feminine crooner and her act, 'Nertzology,' is entertaining.

Stage and Screen

MUSIC HALL-Duke Ellington and his orchestra, on the stage, and on the screen, 'Wild Cargo,' Frank Buck in dramatized jungle feature. PARAMOUNT-Six acts of vaudeville on the stage, and on the screen, 'The Witching Hour,' Tom Brown and Gertrude Michael. It is a thrilling story of a murder, committed while under a hypnotic spell, and the result is unfolded with dramatic suspense before the eyes of the jury in the courtroom. Mystery is terrific and Manager Harry Woodin urges patrons to see the picture from the beginning. Other big-time vaudeville acts are: 'The Andresens,' world's greatest vaudeville act, Joan, Jerry and Billy in 'Dance Creations'; Sanna and Loomis in a comedy skit, 'Monkey Shines'; and Jackie Brunes, a beautiful girl, who sings. 'Adorable,' starring Janet Gaynor and Henry Garat, is the 'revival' picture for one showing each day at noon.
