

FRESH OHIO NEWS

SENT IN BY "THE OLD RELIABLE" GAZETTE'S
CORRESPONDENTS.

What Our People Are Doing, Each Week—Church
Personal, Social, Lodge, Literary and Musical—Marriages, Deaths, Etc.

YOUNGSTOWN.—The revival at Third Baptist church closed, last week. It was a success.—Miss Olive Payne will return to school at Wilberforce, Tuesday.—M. Johnson, a McKelvey Department store employee, passed the state bar examination, a few weeks ago. So we will have another lawyer here ere long.—Leroy Young was called to Beaver Falls, Pa., Friday night, by the death of Mrs. Mary Grimes. He remained there for the funeral, Wednesday.—Our City Federation of Women's clubs' celebration of the birthday of Frederick Douglass and the martyr, Abraham Lincoln, Thursday evening, at Belmont "Y," was a grand success. Mrs. Richard D. Lynch and Mrs. Sully Johnson headed the banquet committee of arrangements.

CORRESPONDENTS must mail all letters for publication at their main postoffice sufficiently early on Sunday or Monday of each week to have them reach The Gazette office on Tuesday morning, and always write their names and that of their city or town on the outside of the wrapper about returned copies, if proper credit for them is desired. Lists of names, wedding presents, programs, obituary notices, inquiries for relatives and advertisements of all kinds, including items announcing entertainments to be held in the near future, must be paid for in advance at the rate of 15 cents a line, six words to a line. Our rates for display advertisements will be sent on application.

tee board held meetings here, Thursday afternoon, and approved a contract with the Dayton Power and Light Co. to extend a new three phase circuit, to the new power house from the old Wilberforce station on the Pennsylvania Railroad, to supply electrical power for a new pump installed during the water famine of about a month ago. They also approved specifications and plans of the FERA to construct a trestle and retaining wall and an outside cold-storage to be installed back of the power house. Trustees in attendance were: Rev. J. O. Haightcox, Rev. David O. Walker, Dwight R. Williams of Cleveland and President R. R. Wright.

DAYTON.—Prof. L. C. Ridley of ployee, passed the state bar examination, a few weeks ago. So we will have another lawyer here soon.—L. C. McCoy Young was called to Heaven Falls, Pa., Friday night, by the death of Mrs. Mary Grimes. He remained there for the funeral, Wednesday.—Our City Federation of Women's club, called the birthday of Frederick Douglass and the martyr, Abraham Lincoln, Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. Richard D. Lynch and Mrs. Sully Johnson, in aid of the banquet and arrangements.

CORRESPONDENTS must mail all letters for publication at their main postoffice sufficiently early on Sunday or Monday of each week to have them reach The Gazette office on Tuesday morning, and always write their names and that of their city or town on the outside of the wrapper about returned copies. If proper credit for them is desired, lists of names, wedding presents, programs, obituary notices, inquiries for replies and advertisements of all kinds, including items announcing entertainments to be held in the near future, must be paid for and placed at the rate of 15 cents a line, six words to a line. Our rates for display advertisements will be sent on application.

DAYTON.—J. P. C. Kelley of Winton Center, last week Sunday afternoon, on our "History Week."—Rev. E. C. Estelle, his four choirs and congregation worshipped with Rev. N. H. Wiggins at Phillips Temple, last week Sunday afternoon.—Monday night week, Dr. Jernigan of Washington, D. C., president of the National S. S. and B. Y. P. U. board, spoke on "The Challenge." He left with Rev. Estelle to attend the board meeting in Richmond, Ky. The latter is conducting revival services at Zion Baptist church, Louisville.—Mrs. Ella Palmer is visiting her parents in Youngstown.—A. L. Lucas has gone to Washington, D. C. He has been appointed messenger in the public works administration department.—Mrs. Ada Davis of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ethel Smith.

CINCINNATI.—The body of Walter Greer was found, last week Thursday, at his place of business. Services were held from the home, Monday. His mother, the widow and five children survive.—Mary Hillman of Springfield visited her brother, Wm. Turner, over the week-end.—Funeral services for Mrs. Mitchell, an inmate of the Home for Aged, were held last week Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawson spent a recent week-end with her parents in Lebanon.—Miss Wilhelmina Butler is still ill.—Duke Ellington and band are at Schubert's theater.—Walter Wilson left, Sunday, to take his brother, Charles, who is ill, to Seattle.—Mesdames Chance and Hatcher are visiting their father, Prof. H. F. McNorton in New Worth, Tex.—Atty. Elsie the Pennsylvania Railroad, to supply electrical power for a new building installed during the war, found of about a month ago. They also approved specifications and plans of the P. E. R. Co. to construct a trestle and retaining wall and an outside cold-storage to be installed back of the power house. Trustees in attendance were: Rev. J. O. Heathcox, Rev. David O. Walker, Dwight R. Williams of Cleveland and President R. R. Wright.

Steele, was called to New Brunswick, N. J., by a son's illness.—Ben Hughes is spending the winter at Daytona Beach.

WILBERFORCE.—Mrs. Susie Green thanks the community for $68.85 Red Cross funds. Mrs. Green and Mrs. Gilbert H. Jones thank those who helped them dispose of $10.20 worth of Xmas seals.—Mrs. Isaac S. Lane spent last Sunday in Chicago attending a birthday celebration for her mother, Mrs. Estelle Carrington.—Miss Virginia Jackson and sister-in-law, Mrs. Harvey C. Jackson, Jr., of N. Y. City, visited the Misses Lucinda Cook and Anna O'H. Williamson, last week. Miss Jackson is a niece of Miss Cook and had just finished work in Columbia University, N. Y. City. The visitors left, Saturday night, to visit in Detroit.—President R. R. Wright left, Saturday night, to speak, Sunday afternoon, at a mass meeting in the YMCA, and Monday morning, to the Council of Churches, Detroit.—Gov. Martin L. Davey received a group of students of Wilberforce University, Thursday. They were gathering material for use in the study of political science and government, and were accompanied by Dr. Gilbert H. Jones, teacher; and Mrs. Julia Thomas, matron. The class also visited the state departments, etc.—Two committees of the State Department (C. N. & I.) trus-