

FRESH OHIO NEWS

SENT IN BY "THE OLD RELIABLE" GAZETTE'S
CORRESPONDENTS.

What Our People Are Doing, Each Week—Church
Personal, Social, Lodge, Literary and Musical—Marriages, Deaths, Etc.

YOUNGSTOWN.—J. J. Harvey and son, B. J., are visiting in Columbus, over Sunday.—The Centenary M. E. church was filled, last Tuesday evening, to hear Mrs. Mary McC. Bethune make an address in which she referred very interestingly to the "Underground Railroad" days of Ohio when many of our people were being assisted to escape to Canada.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore's son, Charlie, was married to Miss Strabel VanStory at the latter's home Thursday evening by Rev. W. O. Harper.—Mr. and Mrs. Clifton, Douglas and son spent Sunday in Detroit.

TOLEDO.—Fully a dozen local Elks attended the recent session of the P. E. R. and P. D. R. councils held in Cleveland, recently.—Mrs. Ella P. Stewart's recent address on the "Afro-American and Some of His Achievements" is still being favorably discussed.—The Second Youth Conference held here, last week, was largely attended and very interesting.—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Brown and daughter of Detroit visited Mr. and

C. Johnson was given a party, last week Monday evening, by the cast of the Female Minstrel Co.

CINCINNATI. — Maxie A. Cunningham has returned to Union City, Tenn., after spending several weeks here with his wife.—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Fryo have just celebrated their 47th marriage anniversary.—Mrs. V. C. Lightfoot is attending a relative who is very ill in Memphis.—Mrs. Gussie Brown and daughter went to Chicago, last week.—Duke Ellington was presented at the Paradise ball-room on a recent Thursday night.—Melvin Greer died, last week.—Rev. B. F. Reid gave his illustrated lecture, "Palestine," last week Friday evening.—The remains of Dr. N. C. Vaughn were buried, last week Tuesday.—Mrs. Edna Adams and daughter visited her father in Springfield, recently.

WILBERFORCE. — A. M. E. churches of Pennsylvania, Ohio, W. Virginia, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Kentucky will give their Mother's Day collections to the University. An effort is to be made to raise $35,000. At the head of the movement are Bishop R. C. Ransom of the third Episcopal district, Bishop W. H. Heard of the first, Bishop H. B. Parks of the Fourth, and Bishop H. Y. Tookes of the 14th District. Wilberforce University makes no distinction in its faculty, student-body or trustees so far as religion and denomination are concerned, and members of nearly every denomination are to be found among its faculty and students.—Russell Brown, Jr., won second place, recently, with his opponent, Cole, in a 100-yard dash. Time 10.5 seconds. He represented E. High school, and Cole, last year's champion, represented Manual High school. Russell is the son of Rev. Russell S. Brown, former member of the C. N. I. (State Department) trustee board and former pastor of Mt. Zion Cong. church, Cleveland. He is also the grandson of Prof. Chas. S. Smith, director of the Placement Bureau and Alumni Association of Wilberforce University.—President R. R. Wright on May 27 will deliver the commencement address at Montgomery Alabama State Teachers' college; on May 28, at Normal Alabama A. & M. college, and on June 2, the baccalaureate sermon at Morris Brown college, Atlanta, Ga.—Mrs. Harvey Jackson, after a week's visit with the Misses Lucinda Cook and Anna O'H. Williamson, returned to Detroit, Saturday night Supt. and Mrs. C. C. Jenkins, Mrs. Julia W. Thomas and Miss Jessie H. Smith spent Easter in Cleveland; Miss Mollie Dunlap motored to Kalamazoo, Mich., to visit her mother, and Miss Anne Weaver and Mrs. Melvin Johnson motored to Kansas City, Mo.—The committee on teachers of the C. N. I. (State Department) trustee board: Dr. J. A. Owen (chair.), and Rev. D. O. Walker, both of Cleveland, and President R. R.

are to be found among its faculty and students.—Russell Brown, Jr., won second place, recently, with his opponent, Cole, in a 100-yard dash. Time 10.5 seconds. He represented E. High school, and Cole, last year's champion, represented Manual High school. Russell is the son of Rev. Russell S. Brown, former member of the C. N. I. (State Department) trustee board and former pastor of Mt. Zion Cong. church, Cleveland. He is also the grandson of Prof. Chas. S. Smith, director of the Placement Bureau and Alumni Association of Wilberforce University.—President R. R. Wright on May 27 will deliver the commencement address at Montgomery Alabama State Teachers' college; on May 28, at Normal Alabama A. & M. college, and on June 2, the baccalaureate sermon at Morris Brown college, Atlanta, Ga.—Mrs. Harvey Jackson, after a week's visit with the Misses Lucinda Cook and Anna O'H. Williamson, returned to Detroit, Saturday night. Supt. and Mrs. C. C. Jenkins, Mrs. Julia W. Thomas and Miss Jessie H. Smith spent Easter in Cleveland; Miss Mollie Dunlap, motored to Kalamazoo, Mich., to visit her mother, and Miss Anne Weaver and Mrs. Melvin Johnson motored to Kansas City, Mo.—The committee on teachers of the C. N. I. (State Department) trustee board: Dr. J. A. Owen (chair.), and Rev. D. O. Walker, both of Cleveland, and President R. R. Wright, met, Monday.