

COURIER EDITOR VIEWS "EAST OF JAVA" MAKING

By ROBERT L. VANN (Editor, The Pittsburgh Courier)

There is something about Hollywood that "gets" you, even if you are on the inside where the industry does things. Anyone may be driven through Beverly Hills, and your guide may point out this home as Mary Pickford's or that home as belonging to the star or that...

Well, we had such an opportunity during our recent visit to the coast. Our first experience was when we were admitted to the Universal lot. There Clarence Muse was being "shot" in the coming picture to be known as "East of Java."

Under the direction of Mr. Melford, one of the veterans at the business, the whole story unfolds in such realistic fashion that one feels as though he were actually there.

The picture will be ready within a few weeks. We cannot wait to see it. We are sure that it will be a success. The picture is a masterpiece of realism.

Clarence Muse as "Mister Johnson," the first mate on a Chinese junker in the universal's "East of Java," telling Robert L. Vann of the Department of Justice, while on location how he will save Charles Rickford, the star, from an attack of a few...

STEPIN FETCHIT RECEIVES A NEW CONTRACT AT FOX

Famed Film Comedian Calls Courier Office From Airport—Enroute to New York. For Vacation—Gets Salary Raise.

Stepin Fetchit, the screen's laziest man, who enjoys a unique place in the annals of filmdom's greats, is back in the good graces of Fox films again.

Suspended week before last, the "ara" comedian, whose drawing voice and funny antics on the silver screen have convinced millions, admitted Monday afternoon, in a special interview with the Pittsburgh Courier, that he is back where he started.

Snappily attired, Stepin Fetchit stopped off at the City-Country airport on his way to New York City, where he is spending a few weeks' vacation.

"I was suspended," he said, "but the trouble did not center around Bill Robinson. Lately things have not been as smooth at Fox with me as they should have been, and the cause of my suspension was something which has been brewing for a long time."

"The departure of one of my closest friends, former executive with the company, and the death of my friend, advisor and confidant, as if in the same loving public as if for the best interest of the year at a bargain. The Denver Club is one year old but this is their first dance. The committee in charge is composed of Gutter the...
