

VALLEY MOR

Valley Youths At A. & M.

By BILL FLETCHER

COLLEGE STATION — The annual bonfire Tuesday night marked the beginning of an evening of festivities for the cadet corps, the like of which has not been seen on the campus for some time. The cadet corps gathered in front of the YMCA for a short talk by the chief yell leader, Herbie Hartung, of San Antonio and then went to the drill field for the bonfire. As the bonfire burned talks were made by the yell staff, members of the football team, and coaches.

Immediately after the bonfire the cadets adjourned to Guion Hall where Duke Ellington and his band presented a concert. Following the concert was the annual Thanksgiving dance held in the college mess hall.

School was dismissed Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock not to be resumed until the following Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stuart of Stuart Place attended the game in Austin Thursday and were accompanied to the Valley by their son, Leslie, who remained for the rest of the holidays.

Grace Hall at Texas University entertained with an open house and coffee Thanksgiving morning from nine until twelve o'clock for Valley A & M students. Valley girls living at Grace Hall include: Alice Tamm of Harlingen, Sue Ayers of Donna, Billie Nichols of Brownsville, Elizabeth Canales, also of Brownsville, and Flora Jones of Raymondville.

Miss Mary Ellen Osborne of Harlingen was the guest of Dan Murphy of Stuart Place for the Texas University-A & M game Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Philen of Hearne visited Laile Thompson here at College Station Sunday evening.

John Coultis of Brownsville, a member of 2nd Headquarters Field Artillery is the nephew of Frank R. Lee of Harlingen. Other Valley students members of 2nd Headquarters Battery are: Bill Huit, Laile Thompson of Harlingen, Charles McIntyre, Jimmie Walker, George Hanna, of Brownsville, and LeRoy Edwards of Weslaco.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Deputy of Brownsville visited their daughter, Hazel and attended the A & M-Texas University game. Hazel is a student of Texas University.

Miss Blanche Baker and Darold Jackson, both of Harlingen, also attended the game. Darold returned to Harlingen for the holidays.

Johnnie Coston, Laile Thompson, George Hanna and E. W. McGlothlin attended the Horticulture Show here Monday and Tuesday.

Jimmie Walker and John Coultis both of Brownsville have been recently dismissed from the college hospital.

San Benito boys home for the holidays this weekend are: Glynn Sidcous, Bill Sloan, Teddie Bowie, Bally Smith, Jack Clark and Clarence Theime.

Mrs. M. B. Huffman and Harvey Richards both of Harlingen attended the game in Austin Thursday. They were accompanied to the Valley by Mahlon Huffman who is a student here at A & M.

Harlingen boys home for the weekend are: Hammond White, Mahlon Huffman, Darold Jackson, Bill Huit, Clinton Beck, Robert Groulx, Jesse Dunn, Jack Pate.

Jack Clark of San Benito spent Wednesday night with Henry Sublett of San Benito and Lloyd Parker of Olmito. Sublett and Parker are students at Texas University.

Paul Messles, formerly of Brownsville and now a resident of Santa Rosa, is a member of the Signal Corps here this year.

Brownsville boys home for the holidays are: John Beeson, Robert Wade, George Hanna, A. W. Reid, Charles McIntyre, Jimmie Walker, John Coultis and Raymond Marques.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunn and son, Jesse, all of Harlingen, attended the game at Austin Thursday.

The A & M Newman Club held a dance in the K. C. Hall in Bryan Saturday night. Frank Hengler, Raymond Marques, and A. W. Reid all of Brownsville attended.

E. H. Cox, Brady Parker, Ed Wilde, and Harry Richard are Raymondville boys home for the weekend.

Miss Jane Betts of La Feria and Laile Thompson of Harlingen attended the Aggie-Steer game. Miss Betts returned to La Feria where