

CLEVELAND Social and Personal

Atty. and Mrs. Walter E. Carey Jr., E. 97th St., leave, today, on a motor trip which will include Boston, Mass.

Daniel Briscoe's funeral services were held, last week Thursday, at E. Mt. Zion Baptist church, the pastor officiating.

Five nice rooms (modern) with bath and garage for rent, and no objection to children, Call MI. 7420 immediately.

To vote either at the Sept. 28 primary or the Nov. 2 run-off election, Clevelanders must be properly registered by Aug. 30, the final registration day in 1937.

Ladies! The best up-to-date fashion news, well illustrated, appears in The Gazette, every week on page 1. Tell your friends and acquaintances.

Merle Cooper, horticulturist, has gone to Tuskegee, Ala. Institute to accept a position. His wife and baby son, who are in Oberlin, will join him next month.

Mrs. Will Jackson, of Everton Ave., left, Sunday night, to visit relatives in the East. Her daughter had just returned from a visit in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carnes entertained at dinner, one evening last week, Duke Ellington, Miss Ivy Anderson of N. Y. City and several others.

Mrs. Anna Evans, wife of Rev. H. W. Evans, pastor of Lane Metropolitan CME church, has returned from Richmond, Va., where she was called by her mother's illness.

Alex. O. Taylor, Cleveland correspondent of the Chicago Defender, received severe lacerations in a fall from a City Hall elevator owing to the carelessness of an operator, last week Wednesday.

Mary J. Taylor of Griswold Ave. and James Drake were married at Liberty Hill Baptist church, late last Saturday afternoon. A reception was held at Cosmopolitan club in the evening.

Rev. Joseph Gomez, pastor of St.

first-named is the brother of Atty. John E. Ballard who recently lost his wife. Mr. Ballard was retired, this Spring, after having taught school in Cadiz for 41 years. They were tendered a farewell reception at St. James A.M.E. church, Cadiz, recently. "The Old Reliable" Gazette welcomes them to the city.

A 15-year-old washing machine caused the death of a prisoner at Warrensville workhouse, Monday. The victim was Frederick Union, age 34, of 2507 Scovill Ave., who was serving a six-month term for carrying concealed weapons. He was removing clothes from the washer when a sliding door, weighing 150 pounds, fell on his head, fracturing his skull. He died an hour later in the workhouse hospital.

The case of Flora Moss Keyes, E. 86th., who was arrested on a warrant charging assault, issued week before last, which came up in Municipal Court, last week Tuesday, and was postponed until this week Tuesday, was postponed a second time for a week, at the request of her attorney. Mrs. Keyes was released on a two or three hundred dollar bail. The warrant was issued as the result of her use of violent and abusive language toward a neighbor (white).

There are five candidates for the City Council, in Ward 11; three, in Ward 12; eight, in Ward 16; four, in Ward 17; the same number in Wards 18 and 19. Arthur Johnston, Norman McGhee and Samuel McAllister are bucking Councilman Bundy in Ward 17; Leo Wano, Vee Beck, Chas. Granger and James Leake are opposing Councilman Payne, in Ward 11; John Holly and John Cobbs are after Councilman Finkle's scalp, in Ward 12, and the candidates in Ward 18 are Harold Gasaway, Septimus Craig (Councilman), John Morning and Richard Barrett. In Ward 19, Thos. Burke, Clarence Burton and Holland Davis are fighting Council-president, Alex. DeMaioresibus. There is going to be a HOT time soon now.

Merle Cooper, horticulturist, has gone to Tuskegee, Ala. Institute to accept a position. His wife and baby son, who are in Oberlin, will join him next month.

Mrs. Will Jackson, of Everton Ave., left Sunday night, to visit relatives in the East. Her daughter had just returned from a visit in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carnes entertained at dinner, one evening last week. Duke Ellington, Miss Ivy Anderson of N. Y. City and several others.

Mrs. Anna Evans, wife of Rev. H. W. Evans, pastor of Lane Metropolitan CME church, has returned from Richmond, Va., where she was called by her mother's illness.

Alex. O. Taylor, Cleveland correspondent of the Chicago Defender, received severe lacerations in a fall from a City Hall elevator owing to the carelessness of an operator, last week Wednesday.

Mary J. Taylor of Griswold Ave. and James Drake were married at Liberty Hill Baptist church, late last Saturday afternoon. A reception was held at Cosmopolitan club in the evening.

Rev. Joseph Gomez, pastor of St. James AME church, was in Chatham, Can., last week, attending a meeting of the Foreign Missions Board. Dr. L. I. Berry, secretary of Foreign Missions, accompanied him to Cleveland.

Mrs. Mary Bradley of E. 85th St. entertained her niece, Mrs. Josie Washington of Nashville, Tenn., last week Thursday afternoon, with a very enjoyable dinner. The guests were: Mesdames Cartrell, Green and the Misses Wright and Prince.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Oakfield, son, daughter and Miss Catherine Carreker of Columbus, were guests of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Williams, E. 97th St., this week. Like many others they motored to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dobbs and two daughters of Atlanta, Ga., in the city in attendance upon the Elks' National meet, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carey, Sr., of Tacoma Ave. Mr. Dobbs is GWM of the State of Georgia.

The editor of The Gazette acknowledges the receipt, last week, of a "cordial" invitation to attend the picnic, last Saturday, at the Cedar Country Club in Solon of the employees of the garbage collection division of the city's service from Geo. L. Stokes, general chairman of the committee of arrangements.

Prof. and Mrs. R. F. Ballard and Mrs. Jennie Scott of Cadiz have arrived in the city to locate. The violent and abusive language toward a neighbor (white).

There are five candidates for the City Council, in Ward 11; three, in Ward 12; eight, in Ward 16; four, in Ward 17; the same number in Wards 18 and 19. Arthur Johnston, Norman McGhee and Samuel McAllister are bucking Councilman Bundy in Ward 17; Leo Wano, Vee Beck, Chas. Granger and James Leake are opposing Councilman Payne, in Ward 11; John Holly and John Cobbs are after Councilman Finkle's scalp, in Ward 12, and the candidates in Ward 18 are Harold Gassaway, Septimus Craig (councilman), John Morning and Richard Barrett. In Ward 19, Thos. Burke, Clarence Burton and Holland Davis are fighting Council-president, Alex. DeMajoribus. There is going to be a HOT time soon now.

THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
STATE OF NEW YORK
ALBANY, N. Y.
JANUARY 10, 1912
TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE LAND OFFICE
SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th inst. in relation to the application of the State of New York for the purchase of the land owned by the State of New York in the town of ...