"Of course, he won't be able to use these for a while. But I didn't want to take chances on not being able to get them when he's older."

Food Ticket For Broadway

Sunshine Show Aiding Needy

This Thursday admission to J. J. Parker's Broadway theater will be by foodstuffs or cash with all proceeds going to the Sunshine division to provision needy families at Christmas time.

The Broadway's Sunshine show is a tradition being carried on this year by Mrs. J. J. Parker, president of the Parker theaters, to swell the barrel of cheer for families in need. This policy was instituted years ago by Mrs. Parker's late husband.

Featured on the screen program of the Sunshine show will be the comedy hit "Married Bachelor," starring Robert Young with Ruth Hussey in one of the gayest pictures of the season.

Co-featured on the bill is the newspaper drama "Unholy Partners," with Edward G. Robinson as the star and Laraine Day and Edward Arnold heading the supporting cast.

Stage entertainment will be provided by Joseph Sampietro and his orchestra and chorus.

Spreading Sunshine

Ruth Hussey and Robert Young are stars of the enjoyable comedy "Married Bachelor," now showing with "Unholy Partners" at J. J. Parker's Broadway theater. The Broadway will be turned over to the Sunshine Division show this Thursday to swell contributions of foodstuffs for needy families at Christmas time.

Laugh Riot Stars Oakie

'Rise and Shine' Orpheum Film

BY HERBERT L. LARSON Drama Editor, The Oregonian Maddest, merriest and zaniest melody comedy to ever hit a Portland screen broke loose at the Orpheum theater Wednesday with a high-powered fun-making cast headed by Jack Oakie.

It's a college football story called "Rise and Shine." The less you know about football the better off you'll be viewing this pigskin parade of rip-roaring nonsense.

The lineup behind Oakie includes Linda Darnell, George Murphy, Milton Berle, Walter Brennan, Ruth Donnelly and Donald Meek.

Oakie plays the greatest football star who ever skipped along the yardage stripes. He's gigantic, but he's short on book learning. He can't even remember when Columbus docked.

Grid heroes and football come in for some choice ribbing. It's a tough job getting Oakie over the "exam" hurdle, but he finally passes—with help.

Oakie as star of the Clayton college team is sent to live at the home of Professor Meek for safekeeping. Miss Darnell, the professor's daughter, is charged with keeping an eye on him.

But the night before the big game Oakie is kidnapped by mobsters lead by Sheldon Leonard. Murphy, who had helped Linda care for Oakie, and who is now in love with the girl, sets out with grandpappy to find the football star.

Slenderness Tips Offered; Exercise Found Health Aid

BY IDA JEAN KAIN Noted Diet Expert If you are 20 pounds overweight, you don't want the same figure on a smaller scale. You want a much better figure—or it isn't worth cutting calories.

Diet reduces and exercises streamlines. Exercise won't exactly take fat off one spot and shift it around to a more becoming angle, but to all appearances, it does just about that. It tones flabby muscles.

It is easy to see how important the right kind of regular exercise is to a good streamlining job—afterwards. This is illustrated by a reducer who took off a neat 20 pounds, but whose calisthenics did not quite keep pace with the calorie cutting.

Table with columns for weight, chest, bust, waist, hips, buttocks, thighs, calf, ankle measurements before and after reduction.

I really point with pride to this reducer because her aim is health rather than glamor (I wish all of you felt the same way). She took her time about reducing and says frankly that she would not want to lose another ounce if it would be harmful.

Seal Sales Total $1010 for 9 Days

Christmas seal sale returns for Multnomah county outside of Portland total $1010 for the first nine days, announces Mrs. Norman Furey, seal sale chairman for the Multnomah County Public Health association.

WAGE SURVEY STARTS

Survey of jobs and salaries of city employees was started by the council Wednesday when it passed an emergency ordinance to appropriate $3000 to the public administration service of Chicago to get the work under way.

TAX ORDINANCE FILED

On the ground the county is supposed to waive taxes when property is taken over for park purposes, the city council on Wednesday filed an ordinance which would have paid $383.59 in taxes for nine lots in Kenton.

Comedy Films U. A. Features

Gaiety in melody and dialogue is the order of the day on the screen of J. J. Parker's United Artists theater where "The Chocolate Soldier" and "The Feminine Touch" are featured pictures.

Nelson Eddy and Rise Stevens are stars of the melodic and highly amazing romantic "Chocolate Soldier." Both singing stars are generous with their numbers. Laugh-provoking romance makes for delightful entertainment.

"The Feminine Touch" is another first-flight comedy with Rosalind Russell and Don Ameche heading a good cast.

Jimmie Fidler In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 10—David Niven, learning to fly for the British film, "Spitfire," will ask for transfer to the R. A. F. on his return to active duty.

Bing Crosby bought a 40,000-acre Argentine ranch while he was in South America, and will breed race horses there.

After all the to-do about Claudette Colbert's short hairdo, she's now growing it longer than Hedy Lamarr's for "Palm Beach Story," in which, by the way, the opening scene will find her kicking Rudy Vallee in the face.

Karen Morley, now in New York for the stage, wants a screen offer most of all. THE HIT PARADE: Warner Brothers' "They Died With Their Boots On." Exciting enough to make adults want to play Indian and soldier again.

DISC: "Jack and Jill" (Bluebird-the King Sisters). Four singing Jills hit a musical jackpot. Also, "Silent Night, Holy Night" (Decca). Deanna Durbin gives the holiday season a tuncful send-off.

BEST PERFORMANCE: Errol Flynn as General Custer in "They Died With Their Boots On." When a swashbuckling star gets a swashbuckling role, the result is convincing.

SONG: "Two in Love." Romantic enough to make Dan Cupid's hit parade. Distributed by McNaught syndicate, Inc.

Jap Duplicity Newsreel Film

Japan's history of duplicity and armed assault without warning has been recorded by American cameramen. This history, assembled by Movietone News and with Lowell Thomas giving the narration, arrived in Portland Wednesday and was put on the Newsreel theater's current program.
