The all-star Musical Revue, "Meet the Girls," appearing at Vashon High School Auditorium, Thursday evening, April 3, will feature two hundred girls and women. A fashion show displaying the influence of international trends on "milady's wardrobe" will be among the many special attractions. Ten or more of St. Louis' best-dressed women have been selected to model the newest apparel for Spring 1941.

Two pianos featuring Laura Howard, the arranger for the revue, and Gwendolyn Fox, will be supported by an all-girls' orchestra. The program will include the following acts: Americana, "School Daze", A Touch of Spring, The Pause That Refreshes, Pan-Americana, Waltzes and "Wine," a Serenade to Loveliness.

Tickets are on sale at the YWCA. Proceeds from the show will go to establish a Camp Aid Fund for the Girls' Camp.

Members of the orchestra are: Ethel Williams, Geneva and Doneva Skinner, Marcella Alexander, Clara Carter, Velma Harris Doris Jones, Valeria Benson Clothilde Weilder, Bessie Reason, Gloria Saddler, Gwendolyn Keel and Gwendolyn Fox.

other big-name band, will be released in a few days.

Everyone knows the purpose of the "Y" Camp Benefit Circus. In the past seven years over 3,000 boys have benefited from the proceeds of this annual affair. Camp River Cliff is one of America's finest camps for boys. The new dining lodge built last year for over $6,000 will be electrified for this year's camping season, that will include the latest in electric refrigeration and equipment. The 17th Season opens Monday, June 23.
