Duke Ellington To Play Concert at Owensboro April 20

Duke Ellington and his orchestra will play a concert followed by a colored dance at the Sportscenter at Owensboro, Ky., Friday night, April 20, from 8:30 p. m. to 1:00 a. m., it was announced today.

Ellington, who is reputed to be America's foremost modern composer, is now on a cross-country nationwide tour. Featured with his orchestra are Ray Nance, violin, trumpet, and vocal; Harry Carney, baritone and sax; and Al Hibbler, vocal.

Ellington will present the same type of concert that he gives when appearing at Carnegie Hall in New York City.

Tickets for the concert and dance are on sale at the Sportscenter or at Woods drug store, 19 S. E. Fourth street, Evansville. The advance admission price is $2 per person, including tax. Prices will be higher at the door the night of the concert and dance.
