

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MRS. MADEL EVERYONE ENJOYED THE PROM...

TAKING A PEEK at Junior Prom decorations at Utah State University Saturday are Katherine Harvey, Kaysville; Reta Morgan, Layton, and LaRae Koziar, Ogden.

OGDENITES AT USU

Juniors Swing On Out For 'Holiday' Prom

By BARBARA PROFAIZER

LOGAN — Junior students at Utah State University were in the limelight Saturday night when they presented their annual Junior Prom. This year's prom brought the orchestra of Duke Ellington to the campus.

For two weeks three beautiful girls have patiently awaited for the intermission of the affair to see who would be crowned "Queen of the Junior Prom." They are Faun Okerlund, Loa, Marilyn Mallett, Tooele and Margene Isom of Cedar City. The juniors selected as their theme "A Roman Holiday." Ogden's Barbara Slater was in charge of the decorations.

Miss Profaiser

Girls at the dorms and sorority houses have been in a whirl of excitement for almost as long as the three queen candidates. Such common sayings as "What shall I wear," or "I don't have a date," or "here he comes and I'm not ready," went on among the girls. Twins, Reta and Ruby Morgan, Layton, were among the excited ones at Moen Hall while they waited for their dates Kenny Cloward, Layton and Dave Reynolds, Brigham City. Also were Katherine Harvey, Kaysville, waiting for Don Dean, Salt Lake City, and LaRae Koziar, Ogden waiting for Ronaldo Harper of Honeyville.

At the dance Saturday night hundreds of happy couples enjoyed the fabulous music of the "Duke" and enjoyed themselves at the biggest dance of the year. At the dance were Judy Parker and Dan Schaughnessy, both of Ogden, John Linford, Ogden and Barbara Hone, Brigham City, Joan Mathews, Ogden and John Hall, California, Sylvia Palmer and Tom Thorpe both of Ogden, Tim Healy and Andry Simmons, both of Ogden and Gary Kapp, Ogden and Janene Thomas of Twin Falls, Idaho.

During the coming week students look forward to nothing but winter term tests.

Tint Coconut

For a teen-age party: tint coconut several colors and then roll firm balls of ice cream in it for a rainbow effect.

Nice For Parties

Mold a little rich cookie dough around a solid-chocolate mint wafer and bake. Nice for a party!