

ATSALT LAKE THEATERS

JOAN CRAWFORD A HIT AT CAPITOL

"Sadie McKee" is the talk of the town. For Joan Crawford has brought the glamorous Vina Delmar heroine to vivid life on the screen at the Capitol Theatre. Her performance has commanded deeper sympathy or permitted her greater emotional opportunity—plunging into the role of the girl who might live next door—than any other actress has ever had. Her performance is a masterpiece of acting, and she has brought to the screen a new type of heroine, one who is not only beautiful but also intelligent and capable of great emotional depth. Her performance is a masterpiece of acting, and she has brought to the screen a new type of heroine, one who is not only beautiful but also intelligent and capable of great emotional depth.

FAMED ORCHESTRA PLEASES ORPHEUMITES

For the week-end Orpheum patrons are enjoying the finest orchestra of classic quality. Ellington is no mere band leader, but a composer of distinctive style, a composer of unimpeachable music, according to a musical critic, "probably the first composer of real character to come out of America." In Europe he is regarded as America's leading jazz composer. Some of his best known pieces are "Mood Indigo," "Blues for 'Tan Fantasy,'" "Sophisticated Lady" and "Rude Interlude," his latest hit. The audience, realizing that he is not only a composer but also a pianist, has been attracted to the screen for smart comedy in "Uncertain Lady," with Genevieve Treen impersonating the lady in "Blues for 'Tan Fantasy.'" Her husband and employe unite methods to deal with the situation, which Edward Everett Horton plays the delinquent husband, with Renee Godwin, Mary Nash and others of capability assisting the featured players.

VARIED FARE FOUND AT VICTORY

The season's merriest musical mixup in "Smarty" is keeping fans convulsed at the Victory now. Everybody wants somebody who wants somebody else—until the picture is over. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Great Dictator," with her own originality in "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

PARAMOUNT BOWS TO ROYAL BEAUTY

Sylvia Sydney reigns in the charming romantic comedy, "Thirty-Day Princess," now at the Paramount theater. She is delightful in her dual role—as the shy English girl who falls in love with a prince and as the queen of the royal beauty. It is the first picture to display the versatility of the petite star and it carries wide appeal for fans who enjoy this romantic type of story. At the same time it offers an opportunity for floating a huge load in back of it, gay complications. It contains the ring of the small Italian comedy, which is handled in a way that makes the money if it can find some way of winning publicity and good will for its country. The pretty princess, Zita, turns out to be the answer, and the four brides, a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

GERMAN CAST GIVEN PLAYHOUSE REVUE

Opening with an ensemble number, "On a Little German Garden," the current revue presented by W. Rex Jewell and his lively company at the Playhouse comes in a foreign atmosphere, which is continued with the antics of Tony Parker in his German band number. Comedy with Parker and the cast of "The German Band" is the first attraction. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

"DAVID HARUM" STILL DELIGHTING AT RIALTO

In the picture "David Harum" Edward Royce Westcott's popular novel. The character of the shrewd and sturdy horse dealer whose color, bartering and unscrupulous ways are so well known to the audience. He is at home, but underneath whose hardness lies a warm heart for the poor and perplexed. Royce Westcott's performance is a masterpiece of acting, and he has brought to the screen a new type of heroine, one who is not only beautiful but also intelligent and capable of great emotional depth.

DANCER'S LIFE PICTURED IN GEM FILM

"Bolero," a George Fitz starring picture, is the current attraction at the Gem theater. Its sequences present Fitz as a coal worker turned dancer, avid for fame and recognition of his talents. When he meets it is the beauty of the women who has his partners that wins attention. He discards one after another after they have outlived their ability to attract notice, until he finds one who is not only beautiful but also intelligent and capable of great emotional depth.

DE MILLE SPECTACLE COMES TO STUDIO

"The Sign of the Cross," a great religious story, a great love story, and a spectacular production, is now offered on the Studio screen, together with selected short subjects. The story has been placed in the hands of exceptional players, led by Fredric March as the Roman patriarch, Marcus Suetonius, whose love for the Christian girl, Merida, enacted by Blissa Landi, brings him to the foot of the cross. Claude Rains is superb as the wicked Empress Poppaea; Charles Bickford is magnificent as the Emperor Nero. The picture is a masterpiece of acting, and he has brought to the screen a new type of heroine, one who is not only beautiful but also intelligent and capable of great emotional depth.

COURTROOM DRAMA JOINS WESTERN AT STATE

With Joan Barrymore cast as the great criminal lawyer who faced with disbarment, the picture "The Sign of the Cross" is now showing at the State theater. It is a gripping and dramatic picture, a courtroom drama, a western, a love story, and a spectacular production, is now offered on the Studio screen, together with selected short subjects. The story has been placed in the hands of exceptional players, led by Fredric March as the Roman patriarch, Marcus Suetonius, whose love for the Christian girl, Merida, enacted by Blissa Landi, brings him to the foot of the cross. Claude Rains is superb as the wicked Empress Poppaea; Charles Bickford is magnificent as the Emperor Nero. The picture is a masterpiece of acting, and he has brought to the screen a new type of heroine, one who is not only beautiful but also intelligent and capable of great emotional depth.

MYSTERY SEA DRAMA ON TOWER PROGRAM

"The Sign of the Cross," a great religious story, a great love story, and a spectacular production, is now offered on the Studio screen, together with selected short subjects. The story has been placed in the hands of exceptional players, led by Fredric March as the Roman patriarch, Marcus Suetonius, whose love for the Christian girl, Merida, enacted by Blissa Landi, brings him to the foot of the cross. Claude Rains is superb as the wicked Empress Poppaea; Charles Bickford is magnificent as the Emperor Nero. The picture is a masterpiece of acting, and he has brought to the screen a new type of heroine, one who is not only beautiful but also intelligent and capable of great emotional depth.

BRIGHT PIRANDELLO PLAY FILMED AT STAR

Pirandello's "The Sign of the Cross" is now showing at the Star theater. Miss Garbo enacts the part of a temperamental Budapest

NOW PLAYING

ON STAGE AND SCREEN

On the stage, the picture "The Sign of the Cross" is now showing at the Star theater. Miss Garbo enacts the part of a temperamental Budapest

New Romantic Team Given to Coming Capitol Feature

A brand new romantic team comes to the screen in the persons of Dick and Ginger. Dick is played by Dick Powell and Ginger is played by Ginger Rogers in "Twenty Million Sweethearts." The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

DANCER TO APPEAR IN NEW FILM ROLE

Fred Astaire, internationally famous star of the musical comedy stage, who has unique personality and clever dancing, "alone" accorded the honor of appearing in the picture "The Gay Divorcee." The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

McCUNE'S STUDENTS OF DRAMA APPEAR

Leora Thatcher, instructor in dramatic art, will present a group of her students in the picture "The Sign of the Cross." The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

To Do Own Dances At Hollywood Bowl

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—The artistic side of Hollywood takes expression in the important nights set for the Hollywood Bowl symphony orchestra under the Stars' nights this season. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

SPY STORY AND WESTERN FOR MARLO

With glamorous Connie Bennett enacting the role of an allied spy during the world conflict, "After Midnight" is now showing at the State theater. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

GABLE-COLBERT ROMANTIC COMEDY AT ISIS

"It Happened One Night" is the featured attraction at the Isis theater. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Wampas Trophy Winners

Above is Joan Blondell (left), one of the 1931-32 "baby stars," who won the Wampas trophy, with Dolores Delaney, who was one of the earlier winners. They are shown in a scene from a picture.

Campaign Against Immoral Films Has Hollywood Fused

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hollywood's bias is burning and it is beginning to take some steps to put out the fire. The industry is being forced by women's groups to join forces with the Catholic church in the campaign against immoral pictures. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Dancer to Appear in New Film Role

Fred Astaire, internationally famous star of the musical comedy stage, who has unique personality and clever dancing, "alone" accorded the honor of appearing in the picture "The Gay Divorcee." The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

To Do Own Dances At Hollywood Bowl

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—The artistic side of Hollywood takes expression in the important nights set for the Hollywood Bowl symphony orchestra under the Stars' nights this season. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

SPY STORY AND WESTERN FOR MARLO

With glamorous Connie Bennett enacting the role of an allied spy during the world conflict, "After Midnight" is now showing at the State theater. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

GABLE-COLBERT ROMANTIC COMEDY AT ISIS

"It Happened One Night" is the featured attraction at the Isis theater. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Lack of Summer Shows on Broadway Due to Movies

By MARK BARRON

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—The jolly mood of Broadway is being spoiled by the lack of summer shows. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Dancing Classes to Sponsor Visitors' Night Wednesday

Under the direction of Miranda Watson, the Saturday morning dancing classes at the Deseret gymnasium will hold "open house" Wednesday at 8 p. m. Parents, friends and the general public are invited to take some steps to put out the fire. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Simple Funeral Services Will Be Conducted Saturday for Lew Cody

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., June 1 (AP)—The late Lew Cody, who died in New York, will be buried in the city home of his wife, Mrs. Cody, Saturday afternoon. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Polly Undersea Laugh Near Fatal

Formerly the best of friends, Polly Moran and Ned Sparks, noted screen funny men, haven't spoken to one another for a matter of more than two weeks. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Finishing Film Sisters One of Director's Problems

Finishing two girls who looked enough alike to star together, both with good figures and one able to wear a bathing suit, is being a problem for director, and Gladys Allen, president of the Hollywood Guild. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Hunt for Hosiery Makes Excitement

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—One of the funny mishaps of the week was the stocking hunt that the Hal Roach importation from Denmark, Little Lillian, made Sunday afternoon on the shore boulevard. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

Studio for Work in Drama Opening

Glen Strayer, teacher of dramatics, is opening a studio Monday in the Hampton building, where he will train pupils for stage, screen and radio. The picture is a comedy of variations on the theme of "The Got Your Number." Warren William and Edward Everett Horton are costars. Both of them have kept even the most expert of husbands, somewhat dazed when the eternal triangle begins going around in circles. It is all in all a whole cast seems to get much enjoyment out of the novel situations as the audience does. Frank McHugh, Claire Dodd and Joan Wheeler lead the supporting cast. "The Crosby Case," a hitting comedy, is second attraction. Four people are suspected of murdering a man, but only one is guilty. The picture is an entirely different version. Wynne Gibson and Orestes Stevens have the romantic leads, with Alice Callahan, Albert D'Ercole, William Collier, Sr., J. Farrell MacDonald, Warren Hyman and John Wray.

L. Marcus Theatre

JOAN CRAWFORD in "SADIE MCKEE" with FRANCHOT TONE

Paramount

Sylvia SIDNEY in "THIRTY-DAY PRINCESS" with CARY GRANT

Victory

JOAN BLONDELL in "SMARTY" with WARREN WILLIAM

Playhouse

W. REX JEWELL in "REVUE '34" with ANN HARDING

General Motors Exhibit

JUNE 2ND TO 5TH AUDITORIUM 56 RICHMOND ST. Open 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Free admission

Strayer's Studio of the Theatre

Water Heated to Just the Right Temperature. Free Parking. 617 Tupperton Building

THEATRE LISTINGS:

- Capitol: JOAN CRAWFORD in "SADIE MCKEE" with FRANCHOT TONE
- Paramount: SYLVIA SIDNEY in "THIRTY-DAY PRINCESS" with CARY GRANT
- Victory: JOAN BLONDELL in "SMARTY" with WARREN WILLIAM
- Playhouse: W. REX JEWELL in "REVUE '34" with ANN HARDING
- General Motors Exhibit: JUNE 2ND TO 5TH AUDITORIUM 56 RICHMOND ST. Open 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Free admission
- Strayer's Studio of the Theatre: Water Heated to Just the Right Temperature. Free Parking. 617 Tupperton Building